

REALLY STUCK?

Two years ago Margaret Cohoe of Kingston, Ontario and Adrienne Campbell of Alice Springs, Australia got together and canvassed all the Whitlocks in Australia. They were particularly looking for Whitlock descendants of John Whitlock (1802-1840) of Langtree, Devon. Letters were drawn up and questionnaires enclosed and then using the telephone directories each area of Australia was covered. The replies were screened by Adrienne for the information she was particularly interested in and then passed on to Margaret then to myself for cataloguing.

It occurred to me that some of you might be interested in undertaking a similar venture in an area where you are stuck and there is a chance some distant Whitlock relations may still be living.

If anyone is interested, let me have the details of what you would like to find and I will draft up a letter for you on the Whitlock letterhead and forward it with a questionnaire form. All that would be needed then would be to make photocopies of the letters and forms address the letters and envelopes, enclose the questionnaire and mail. Replies can be directed to yourself or to me, in either case the information would be catalogued and shown in the "Additions" lists for anyone interested to request copies. You never know...
