

SWEDISH WHITLOCKS

The line of descent is printed in "The Landed Gentry", page 1224

Richard Whitelocke, Esq. of London, was b. at Beches about 1533, became a merchant, and was made free of the "Merchant Adventurers". He m. 7 Feb.1563,Joan, dau. of John Colte, Esq., co. Hertford, and widow of Mr. Brockhurst, of London, merchant (who d. of the plague, 5 Queen Elizabeth), by whom (who m. 3rdly, Thomas Price, of London, merchant, and d. 21 Feb.1606) he had issue,

I.Edmund

II.Richard, of Elbing, in Spruceland, Sweden, b. 28 Dec.1565, sent to Dantzic at the age of 16; m. Katherine Dambits, of Elbing, and d.1624, leaving, with two daus., Katherine m. --Smith, of Clundby, and another m. Capt.Potley, as many sons,

James b. in Elbing in 1608.

John b.in Elbing about 1614, father of

John Jacob Whitelocke, b.1657, whose son

Clement, m.Marie Behmer de Metzдорф, and had three sons,

1.John, b.13 Sept 1744, Major in the service of the King of Sweden, and Knt of the Order of the Sword; m. Marie Lindmark, and was killed by a cannon ball while commanding a ship of the line against Russia, 3 June, 1790, leaving one son, Charles Otto, Aide-de-Camp to the King of Sweden, b.27 Sept. 1789 and d. at Florence, Italy, about 1840;

2. Paul, Major in the artillery of Sweden, Knight of the Sword, b.1748, d.unm. 1810;

3. Charles, b.1754 m.Sophie Lindmark and d.1780 leaving a son Gustave, b.1776, who left Sweden, and has never been heard of.

III. William, b. posthumous 28 Nov.1570, entered the military service; served under Sir Francis Drake, and was slain in a fight with the Spaniards 1597.

IV.Sir James Whitelocke, Knt. twin with William, of Fawley Court, co.Buckinghamshire, J.P...had issue,

I. Sir Bulstrode Whitelocke, Knt. of Fawley Court, and Chilton Lodge, co. Wilts, created by Christiana, Queen of Sweden, a Knight of the Order of Amaranth, b.6 Aug.1605...

(Source:X492/8)