

LLOYD WHITLOCK, ACTOR

I recently came across reference to a Lloyd Whitlock who was a movie actor in the 1920's and 1930's. In 1925 he appeared in two films for Columbia Studios, "Who Cares" and "The Great Sensation". In 1933 he was in "Diamond Trail" but I am not sure of which studio made this film. I would be interested in any information anyone might be able to find about Lloyd Whitlock and if anyone knows who his parents were.
