

JOHN WHITLOCK, TAVERN KEEPER, FERRYMAN

In the miscellaneous material that Ruby Pantalone sent in was a small item I had not seen before regarding the Rappahannock area of Virginia.

"January 1767 John Whitlock gave notice that he had opened a Tavern at Tappahannock... also the management of the ferry here across Rappahannock Falls to my share, where travelers may depend on the readist dispatch"

Source: X1234/8