

HOWARD PERCIVAL WHITLOCK (1913-1998)

At 85, Howard Whitlock had his own personal family tree, six children, 16 grandchildren and 10 great grandchildren. He and his wife Marion Constance Archbold were married in Hawera, New Zealand January 15, 1936. Howard Whitlock died in Wanganui Hospital October 16, 1998.

Howard was a descendant of Mark Whitlock & Elizabeth Living who were married at St.Mary's, Harefield, Middlesex October 26,1772. The WHITLOCK.43 line, the Whitlocks of Ealing, London. The family emigrated to New Zealand and became famous for the pickle factory they built in Wanganui. Howard retired from the business in 1974 as Managing Director.

In 1990 Howard wrote to several Whitlocks living in London and one of the letters was passed on to us. Over the years we traded research and in 1993 were able to trade stories in person when Howard and Marion visited Vancouver on their way to London. The family history was gathered together in book form and published last year - a wonderful record of this part of the family.

Our thanks to Howard's daughter Carolyn who passed this information on to us and is carrying on her father's interest in the family history.
