

JUNE LOUISE (SHAULL) LUTZ (1924-1999)

Our exchange of Whitlock research goes back to 1985 when preparations were underway for Expo'86 in Vancouver and June and her husband were planning their visit. June was one of the original subscribers to the Whitlock Gleanings Newsletter published by Tom Roach back in 1981 and continued to support our research after we combined our two newsletters in 1985. Her husband Norman advised us that June died May 25,1999 in Lansing, Michigan.

June was born in Grand Rapids, Michigan June 16,1924, the daughter of Howard Gerald & Anna Mae (Newton) Shaull. She was a descendant of Solomon & Rosana (Whitlock) Schrodes who were married in 1824 in Berkeley Co., Virginia.

In 1997 June gathered together all her research and sent us a summary of the information she had collected over the years during her search for Rosana Whitlock's parents. We were able to place most of the families mentioned in June's summary but were still unable to place Rosana. One day...
