

INVENTORY OF GRIZEL WHITLOCK, 1759

One of the continuing mysteries of this research is Grizel (Coleman) Whitlock of Goochland Co., Virginia. We know she was the daughter of Daniel Coleman as he mentions her in a land document in 1739. In 1751 she purchases 250 acres as Grizel Whitlock on Beaverdam Creek in Goochland Co. but is shown as "of King William Co." We have her will from 1759 but still have not been able to determine who her husband was. The latest addition to our files is the Inventory of Grizel's estate send in by Geneva Campbell. I find inventories tell a great deal about the person life and Grizel's is no exception. Lots of basic farming utensils including sheep shears and carding devises and a spinning wheel. I hope you find it of interest.
