

ESTATE OF ZALMON WHITLOCK (1760-1798) OF GRANBY, CT

The following documents were sent in by Peter Leitch Whitlock and relate to the Estate of Zalmon Whitlock, the son of Ebenezer Whitlock and his wife Amelia Hamilton. Zalmon was married to Rachel Higley and had three small children at his death, age 37. This family is detailed on the WHITLOCK09 chart. Strangely some of the documents are in pounds/shillings/pence while others are in dollars/cents.

Present Noah Phelps Judge

In order to discharge the debts due from the Estate of Mr. Zalmon Whitlock late of Granby Deceased, This Court believes that the Widow and Heirs to said Estate will be benefited by disposing of a parcel of Land, which has lately fallen to the Deceased in Danbury from his Honoured Father's Estate.

This is therefore to order and empower Mr. Ebenezer Whitlock and the Widow Rachel Whitlock Administration on the Estate of Mr Zalmon Whitlock Deceased Estate to sett at publick or private sale so much of said Land as will raise the sum of Nineteen pounds Sixteen shillings and Ten pence with incident charges arising on said sale and they to make return of their doings to this Court as soon as may be.

At a Court of Probate holden at Symsbury within and for the District of Symsbury on the 12th Day of August AD 1800.

Present Noah Phelps Judge
