

BULLSTRODE WHITELOCKE K.C. OF AUSTRALIA

Vicky House recently sent me some interesting links to an Australian named Bullstrode Whitelocke. He is an octogenation Barrister-at-law from Mosman, Australia who has recently published the 3rd edition of his book Whitelocke: On Lawmanship a parody legal text book.

Mr. Whitelocke's blogs and rap songs about the legal issues as well his irreverent humor single him out from his fellow legal beagles. Just his comments about the Australian democratic process make him someone interesting to watch.

Hopefully as more information is received we will determine how he fits into the Whitlock family and if he actually is connected in some way to his namesake Sir Bulstrode Whitelocke (1605-1675).
