There have been some interesting developments since the March issue so hopefully this will be an informative Newsletter. Of course there was the marriage of Whitlock descendant Prince William to Kate Middleton which seemed to capture everyone's attention!!

The volume of enquiries and email has dropped off a bit from the blitz that seem to happen in the first three months of the year. We had a slower but steady stream of questions and emails plus our first posting on our "wall" of the Whitlock Family Association Facebook site. This was from Jennifer Nicholas who's husband is a descendant of the WHITLOCK01 family. I look forward to receiving this information and adding this descent to our files. I did send quite a few messages to Whitlocks and Whitelocks on Facebook and heard back from several of them. Recently I sent a message to a selection of Witlox on Facebook and have received a message from a Ton Witlox in Holland. I forwarded him the WHITLOCK90 chart and hope he is able to make a connection to that chart as it extends back to 1300. Bjorn Witlox also sent me some interesting Swedish words, (Hvitlock and Vitlok) and what they mean in Swedish. I have done a short article on these words for this issue. Bjorn also sent me a list of births and marriages for persons with the surname Hvitlock 1660-1860 from the IGI for Sweden (X7026).

I noticed I had missed a section of the last disc that Lawrence Otis sent me. The entries are mainly from PEI (X6993-X7005). Also R3024 the Whitlock section of the card file in the Charlottetown, PEI. Archives. I now have another disc from Lawrence that I will be working on over the next few months.

Greg Whitlock sent in the obit for Grady Whitlock of Beckley, WV (X7022). He sold Ford cars and at one time Grady Whitlock had the largest car dealership in the world. One of our Whitlock artifacts is a metal name plate that was once attached to one of the cars Grady sold. He was 83.

I continue to plug away at the census records. I have added a lot to the Virginia file recently and have updated the copy on the Website. I am currently working on New York and have downloaded the 1820 (R3030) and am working on the 1830 images (R3031). I have extracted the 1800 and 1810 entries and updated the file with those.

I have finally entered all the births to 1900 from my old 3 x 5 index cards. I still need to add the parents to these entries from 1880 to 1900 but otherwise the births are complete to that point. I have started work on the deaths and have 1315-1648 done - again the parents, where known, will need to be added to these entries before they are complete. Another long job ahead but it is certainly making our Combined Index with 38,400 births, marriages, deaths and wills a very useful tool.

I have done a short article for this issue to update the possible connection of the Whitlock family to Cholesbury, Buckinghamshire. I hope to use some of the Baldwin family research to confirm our connection or decide our speculation is not borne out by the facts.

My thanks to Debbie Whitlock for the great collection of photos of her Birmingham, Warwickshire family. I have also done an article for this issue on the many Whitlock connections to Birmingham.

One of my Guild of One-Name Studies, Marriage Challenge contributors, Jenny Compton, also has Pitton, Wiltshire connections and she sent me a great picture of Edwin Whitlock (1874-1964) at his sister-in-law's 60's wedding anniversary event in 1961 (PH1238). Edwin Whitlock is the author, Ralph Whitlock's father. Jenny had it listed as a photograph of Ralph Whitlock but it is clearly his father, Edwin.

Our Certificate collect continues to grow with the PEI collection from Lawrence Otis and the Michigan family collection from Marilyn Finke. We now have 3130 certificates and I will include the next installment of them with this issue.

My main article for this issue relates to the research by Elmyra Powell to trace her family's descent from a South Carolina slave owner Isaac W. Whitlock through a child fathered by his son with one of his slaves.

A very interesting story and I hope to print further articles about Elmyra's research. The family is a very good example of how DNA research can be used to confirm theories about family origins that you think are likely but have not been able to prove yet. I am hoping this will encourage others to expand our DNA base. I would particularly like to see if the WHITLOCK35 chart The Whitlocks of Virginia #5 share the same DNA with the rest of the Virginia families who all share DNA with the WHITLOCK02H family, the Whitlocks of Wokingham, Berkshire.

I was very sad to receive notice that the American representative of the Whitlock Family Association, Chuck Rockett, died May 12, 2011. I have done an obituary for him in this issue detailing his huge contribution to our research collection.

My thanks to everyone who renewed their subscription and to many of you who included a donation to assist with the cost of the website - all very much appreciated. I have noticed that when I search the Internet for Whitlock items, the first ones listed are normally from our Website. We are getting a lot of hits and the comments about the site are very complementary. I have also received several subscription payments through the "donate" button on the website. This works well and it is certainly easy to use.

I know there are several family reunions planned for the summer so good luck with your research and if your family is one holding a reunion, enjoy it - they can be a great experience. I am actually hosting a Trehearne reunion this August (my grandmother's family) and am looking forward to reconnecting with many cousins I have not seen since the 1960's!!

ISAAC W. WHITLOCK (1800?-1881) of AUGUSTA, GEORGIA

In March 2009 I did an article for the Newsletter regarding Adoniram Judson Whitlock of Brevard Co., Florida. He was a son of Isaac W. Whitlock and we speculated at that time that Isaac likely was connected to the WHITLOCK16 family the Whitlocks of New Jersey and Wiltshire, England. This was a reasonable speculation as Isaac was born in New York and the census records showed his parents were both born in New Jersey. Unfortunately there were no male Whitlock descendants of Isaac that we could use for a DNA test to confirm the connection.

I was recently contacted by Edwin Harleston Whitlock and through him put in touch with his first cousin Elmyra Powell. Elmyra has been working on her family history for many years and the family stories indicated that they descended from Adoniram Judson Whitlock through a child he had fathered with Adeline Jackson, one of his family's slaves. The family story was that if Adeline gave birth to a son they would both be freed and her son would not grow up as a slave and he would have a free mother to provide for his care. The child was a son and both the mother and son were granted status as free persons. Isaac W. Whitlock became their legal guardian. This was 1850 in South Carolina and free blacks were required to have a legal guardian. The son, William Henry Whitlock was apprenticed as a harness maker, a very lucrative business in the 1870's and he thrived. In 1879 he married Lucilla Dickersen and they raised a family. William Henry Whitlock fought in the Civil War and later became a respected Methodist Minister. He died in Gary, Indiana in 1917.

William Henry Whitlock & Lucilla Dickersen

Edwin asked about the Whitlock DNA project and I advised him that while I had DNA samples from several members of the WHITLOCK16 family, I was not positive Isaac W. Whitlock actually was part of the family. Therefore if his DNA sample did not show a connection it could mean he was not a descendant of Adoniram Judson Whitlock or that Isaac W. Whitlock was not part of the WHITLOCK16 family. Edwin took the risk and in April got his DNA results. It was a 35 of 37 marker match and thus indicated that yes, the family did descend from Adoniram Judson Whitlock and that yes, Isaac W. Whitlock did share DNA with the members of the WHITLOCK16 family. A double connection.

As Elmyra sent more information in about the family it became evident that this family was related to the Harleston family that was the subject of the books by Edward Ball. I have both his Slaves In The Family and The Sweet Hell Inside as both include personal recollections by Edwina Harleston Whitlock. I should have twigged when I noticed Edwin was Edwin Harleston Whitlock!! Edwin is the son of Edwina Harleston Whitlock. Interesting to discover that both the Harleston and Whitlock families have similar origins, both descending from the white slave owning families.

William Henry Whitlock (1850-1917)

Isaac W. Whitlock was a Corn Merchant and by 1830 was living in Richmond Co., Georgia. He was married to Elizabeth B. Morris and they had six children, three sons and three daughters. The eldest, Frederick A. Whitlock was born in New York in 1821, the rest were born in Georgia. Frederick A. Whitlock shows on the census records until 1870. Isaac W. Whitlock's will is dated Jan.28,1875 and mentions all six of his children although his daughter Susan has died and the reference is to her children. Isaac W. Whitlock died Mar.7,1881 in Atlanta, Georgia. We know Isaac W. Whitlock was born in New York and his eldest son was born there as well so based on this, I am currently working on the 1800-1820 census records for New York to determine who Isaac W. Whitlock's father might be. Hopefully by a process of elimination I can narrow down the possibilities to a few families that may, with more research, reveal which one Isaac W. Whitlock connects to. I can already eliminate quite a few of the families as they do not meet the criteria we already know. I had thought the "W" in Isaac W. Whitlock might have been William and that his father may be been a William Whitlock but the only William Whitlocks living in New York in 1800 are well known and I know the names of all their children. The "W" may still be William but the likelihood of that being his father's name is slim. Adoniram Judson Whitlock did name his son William Henry Whitlock.

A very interesting family and I appreciate Elmyra Powell sharing her many years of research. I met one branch of the family while in Maui recently. I had lunch with Barry Allison and his wife and mother. His mother was telling me about living in Gary, Indiana and I realized later that this was where the family owned a newspaper business. Elmyra is busy working on material for the family reunion in Chicago this July. I will be very interested to hear how the reunion goes and what new information about the family is revealed. I am also hoping that Elmyra's material for the reunion will result in some interesting articles for our Newsletter.

WHITLOCKS OF CHOLESBURY, BUCKINGHAMSHIRE - UPDATE

We have speculated that several Whitlock families in America originate in Cholesbury, Buckinghamshire. In the December 2005 issue I included an article regarding this theoretical connection and unfortunately since that time we have not been able to confirm or deny the theory proposed at that time.

It is my intention to concentrate on this over the next few months. I understand the parish registers for Cholesbury are available from 1583 and I will be going to the local LDS library to see if I can get access to them.

As well Tom Glassell, a Baldwin researcher has advised the Bucks Record Office has a collection of manorial records that may be of assistance to us:

The Manorial Court Records covering 1300-1600 are:

Aylesbury Bierton Court rolls 1548-1549 Ref: D/X 617/1-2

Court Rolls 1487-1488; 1490-1491; 1 508; 1561-1587 Ref M 39

Accounts and rentals 1350-1700 Ref: M 39

Cholesbury Court Rolls 1599-1738 Ref D/BASM 20/1-6

I have written to my cousin John Lawson Whitlock who lives in Chesham, Bucks to see if he can determine the ability to get access to these records and if any of them have been indexed or printed.

I have also written to a few of the Baldwin researchers to determine if there are any references to Whitlocks in any of their records. I do feel the clue to resolving this is likely through the connection to the Baldwin family. I think the clue to the Whitlock connection in Buckinghamshire is through the Baldwin family there. I am convinced the reason the Whitlocks first came to Massachusetts before John Whitlock headed to Connecticut was because Joseph and Hannah (Whitlock) Baldwin went to Massachusetts. Rose Whitlock stayed in Massachusetts and married Abraham Parker in 1644.

If anyone has worked on any of the Cholesbury records, email me and let me know. I am hoping by gathering together as much research as we can we will be able to determine if our theory has merit or is pure speculation.

ROGER WHITLOCK, ARTIST

A native of Seattle, Washington, Roger Whitlock has lived in Honolulu, Hawaii for more than 40 years. Strangely, my first knowledge of Roger came from Australia. I will explain this later in this article. Patrick and I holiday on Oahu fairly often and last year we finally got to meet Roger. This year I arranged to meet him at his gallery in Honolulu and we spent an interesting time talking Whitlock. The main information I wanted to let Roger know was regarding our recent discovery that his branch of the WHITLOCK74 family, the Whitlocks of Birmingham, Warwickshire came from Oxfordshire and I could now connect his family to the WHITLOCK20 chart and get him back to the 1600's.

Roger's website www.rogerwhitlock.com gives interesting detail and much of this article it taken from that site. In an article in the Honolulu Magazine in December 2008 Jana Wolfe recounts some of Roger's past as an English professor, much of his time spent at the University of Hawaii. He had a very successful career and was awarded the Regent's Medal for excellence in teaching. Ms Wolfe makes the comment that Roger's lack of corresponding success as an author was likely the art world's gain. Unhappy about the difficulty of getting manuscripts published, Roger signed up to take an art class in 1985. Roger enjoyed the class so much he took the same course five times. Bit by bit his life as an artist superceded his life as a professor. When people started asking to purchase his work Roger realized he already was "an artist". Finally retiring from the University of Hawaii in 2001, Roger concentrated on his art. Continuing to refine his skills, he trained with Robert E. Wood and discovered he could financing his love of travel by selling paintings of the places he visited.

As one of America's premier watercolour artists, Roger has had more that 20 solo shows since 1993. By 2001 Roger was chosen by Watercolor Magic as one of 15 American watercolour artists "to watch". By 2008 he was touted as one of the "nine Hawaii artists to collect" by the Honolulu Magazine. In August 2010 Watercolor Artist featured his art in their article "Twelve by Two". A reputation around the world hasn't hurt Roger as well, with recent exhibitions in Taipei City, Taiwan, San Paolo, Brazil and Incheon, Korea.

Roger has achieved that enviable goal of life where you can't wait to get up every morning because you love what you do and there is so much you want to achieve before you return to your bed in the evening. Roger gives the same advice one of my teachers at school gave me as a teenager. Don't wait until you retire to find your passion, if you can, make it your career.

Getting back to that connection to Australia. Whitlock descendants in Australia were working on the family of Harry Whitlock and Mary Ann Cassidy of New South Wales. Harry was from Birmingham, Warwickshire and his brother Arthur Whitlock had a son Arthur Leslie Whitlock who went to live in Seattle. Arthur Leslie Whitlock was Roger's father. As I lived close to Seattle the family in Australia was hoping I might be able to help them trace Arthur's descendants. Great to have gone full circle and gotten to know another amazing Whitlock.

I have shown a couple of examples of Roger's amazing art but checkout his website www.rogerwhitlock.com for many more.

WHITLOCKS OF BIRMINGHAM, WARWICKSHIRE

Over the past 43 years a great deal of information has been sent in and Birmingham has shown up in quite a few of the records. It has become evident over time that there are quite a few different Whitlock families with branches who headed off to Birmingham.

One of these is the WHITLOCK74 family headed by William & Ellen Whitlock. We know they were in Middlesex in the 1820's but in Birmingham by the 1840's when their son William married Mary Ellis in 1849 at Aston Juxta Birmingham. We recently discovered that William Sr. was born in Bampton, Oxfordshire, the son of Elisha Whitlock who is part of the WHITLOCK20 family, The Whitlocks of Oxfordshire. The WHITLOCK74 branch sent family to the furthest corners of the world, with lots of descendants in Australia. Even some of the Whitlocks from this family came to the area of British Columbia where I live. This family also includes the artist Roger Dennis Whitlock. Roger lives in Oahu, Hawaii but still has family in the Seattle, Washington area just south of me.

The second family is the WHITLOCK77 one, The Whitlocks of Northamptonshire. This "Also from Northamptonshire" line is headed by James Whitlock of Silverstone, Northamptonshire who married Sarah Holloway in 1799 at Ravenstone, Buckinghamshire. His son Joseph died in Birmingham in 1857 and Joseph's son, Henry Joseph Whitlock founded the Whitlock photography business in Birmingham. A recent contact from this part of the family is Naomi Arimura from Japan.

The third family with Birmingham connections is the WHITLOCK08 family, the Whitlocks of Essex. One of the "Also from Hertfordshire" lines includes John Whitlock of Barley, Hertfordshire who married Sarah Franklin in 1873. Their son John Samuel Whitlock was born in Birmingham in 1877 and died in Victoria, BC in 1948. Much of the research on this part of the family has come from Chris Geoghegan of Australia.

On the WHITLOCK18 chart, The Whitlocks of Somerset, there is the family of Humphrey Whitlock and Ann James who were married at Dudley, Worcestershire in 1852. By 1859 the family is living in Birmingham.

There is also a small connection with the WHITLOCK48 chart, The Whitlocks of Bideford, Devon. Thomas Whitlock and Elizabeth Isaac were married in Stoke Damerel, Devon in 1811. Their son William Henry Whitlock and his wife Hephzabah Emily are living in Birmingham when their daughter Annie is born in 1865.

While each of these families' time in Birmingham was different, many of them and their descendants were living there at the same time. Even in my own family I have a branch of my mother's family that spent some time in Birmingham in the 1850's to 1880's and there is a photograph of two of them taken by Whitlock Bros of Wolverhampton during this period.

ORIGINS OF THE NAME WHITLOCK - UPDATE

Over the years I have done several articles on the origins of the name W(h)it(e)lo(c)k(e)(s). First in the December 1993 issue and again in the September 2008 issue. I won't repeat any information here as both these articles are available on the website if persons wish to know more. I still like the "location" theory of "white enclosure" as the most likely origin of the name.

My reason for this article is to relate some interesting information that I recently received from Bjorn Witlox of Holland. Bjorn has worked extensively on his family and is a member of the WHITLOCK90 family that traces their descent from Johannes Witloc b.1300.

Bjorn has come across two more words that have Whitlock connections.

The first is Hvit-lok which is the Swedish word for anemone nemorosa, a small white flower and is common in Holland.

His second word is Vitlok which means garlic in Swedish. Bjorn provided a link to the International Genealogical Index, listing many Hvitlocks living in Sweden between 1660 and 1860.

CHARLES WHITLOCK ROCKETT (1925-2011)

I was very sorry to receive the email from Chuck's family advising that he had died May 12, 2011. He first contacted me in 1983 regarding his ancestor, Reuben Whitlock. Chuck was a avid Whitlock researcher and had a huge collection of Whitlock census records he had collected together while doing census research for others. Whenever he came across a Whitlock entry he would record it and store it away. His first of many packages he sent to me was 61 pages and it took me a month to catalogue and cross-reference.

Chuck collected everything Whitlock that he came across and over the years contributed thousands of pages of source material for the Whitlock Family Association. In 1985 I was in Disneyland and took a day to drive down to visit with Chuck. We had a great time and shared endless stories and theories about Whitlock research. This time Chuck sent me home with 276 pages of new material. In 1986 Chuck hired a researcher to extract all the Whitlock and Whitelock entries from the whole 1900 census. Over the next five years Nancy Waterhouse sent me a steady stream of material until there was 479 pages and this project did not even include the black Whitlocks which still need to be done. This provided a huge research tool that allowed me to connect hundreds of persons to the family charts we were building.

With advent of the Internet and email Chuck came into his own. He acquired a computer and by 1995 I was receiving regular emails from Chuck. This opened a whole new world of research and Chuck combed the Internet constantly for Whitlock items. Constantly expanding our knowledge base. Chuck became the American agent for the Whitlock Family Association and answered questions and passed on researcher to me and encouraged others to share their research.

Charles Whitlock Rockett was the son Harold Challinor Rockett and Helen Marguerite Whitlock who were married in New York City in 1921. The family traced back through Ithaca, New York to Rush, Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania where George Whitlock and Elizabeth Kase were married in 1808. George's eldest brother John Whitlock married Mary Morris in New Jersey in 1793 and their parents are known to have been Reuben and Christine Whitlock.

All through this process we kept the search on for Chuck's elusive Reuben Whitlock. Unfortunately, even today the WHITLOCK36 chart that includes Chuck's Pennsylvania ancestors, is still headed by Reuben & Christine Whitlock. We have yet to determine who his parents were.

All avenues of Chuck's life were about selflessly helping others and his legacy to the Whitlock family is immeasurable. His work brought many families together and in many cases answered questions about their origins that he was unable to answer about his own. The current website with over 1,000,000 pages of Whitlock research means Chuck will go on helping others well into the future.

We will all miss him and our sincere condolences go out to his family.
