The Website continues to generate a steady stream of new Whitlock descendants and researcher questions and the Main Lines in this issue reflect several of these new contacts. The Facebook page is also attracting steady traffic.

I am still working through the last section of Lawrence Otis' last disc which is a collection of obits, each of which takes some time to research and record. Rob Whitlock pointed out that we are likely losing this source for future researchers as the trend in obits is to give as little personal information as possible. No maiden names and no dates or places of birth. Obits usually connect together three or more generations and are a great source to connect families together, particularly those that have moved apart over a lifetime. It will be a shame to not have this resource in the future.

I have continued working on our census collection and did the 1910 census for Massachusetts (R3034) as well as the 1841 census of London, England (R3043 & R3044). Next was 1860 & 1870 for Ohio (R3055 & R3056) which filled in quite a few interesting blanks in our records. My latest project is Pennsylvania where I have extracted the 1800 to 1840 entries but have not yet catalogued them. All of these latest extracts include downloading images of the actual census entries into our files.

I was very interested to receive an email from Lucy Glover regarding her family Bible records. Lucy was questioning why the 1827 marriage of Isaiah H. Whitlock & Frances Woolley of Hall Co. Georgia shows in her family records. I have done a short article on Isaiah H. Whitlock for this issue.

D.A. Keith Whitlock kindly forwarded a copy of the Will and Probate documents of John Whitlock (1781-1850) of Bideford, Devon (R3049). This document proved that this John Whitlock was the one who married Elizabeth Braunton Dec.27,1804 in Bideford and had daughters Eliza and Sarah Arnoll born 1805 and 1807. John was the son of Philip and Ann (Chope) Whitlock who heads the WHITLOCK48 chart. This completed a link that had been missing since 1968 when my sister, Necia made up a family card for John and questioned how he might fit into the Devon family. We still have not been able to make the link to connect the WHITLOCK48 line to the WHITLOCK01 family.

Lawrence Otis' latest disc also includes a large collection of UK (R3036-R3044) and US (R3051-R3054) census records for descendants of the WHITLOCK01 family and WHITLOCK28 family. These added great new details to both these lines.

The information from Penny Power (X7029) helped detail her family's long association with India over 80 years covering the 1850's to at least the 1930's.

Libby Whitlock's research into the family of Jeremiah Whitlock and Jemima Brockway (X7041) is the first contact I have had from this part of the family. Jeremiah was born in Gussage, Dorset about 1805 and was married Oct.7,1829 at Donhead, Wiltshire. This family is likely connected to one of the Pitton, Wiltshire families and it will be interesting to see if Libby can uncover more details about Jeremiah.

Our thanks to Debra Yarger for adding great new detail to the WHITLOCK25 family re descent from Jesse & Mary Hazelton Judson (Whitlock) Smith of Vermilion Co., Indiana (X7062). I always appreciate getting new information on the current generations.

I still have some catching up to do in printing the Certificate Register but we are up to CERT3266 and the largest collection added this Quarter is 137 from Massachusetts.

All interesting additions and my thanks to everyone who continue to share their finds with us.

Hope you all had a great Summer and are looking forward to getting back to your research again as the cooler weather arrives.

ISAIAH H. WHITLOCK of HALL CO., GEORGIA, USA

I recently received a copy of a Family Bible record showing the marriage of Isaiah Whitlock and Frances Woolley Mar.19,1827. The item came from Lucy Glover and she was curious to understand why this entry would appear in her family's Bible records. The only other marriage shown is for Hiram Salmon Peterson & Sally Ford Hewitt married Mar.6,1817.

While there are quite a few references to Isaiah, we know relatively little about him. There are no birth or death dates and he does not appear on any census records. The Hall Co., Georgia marriage records record his marriage to Frances Wolley with the date Mar.18,1827. The couple were married by Thos. Jackson, J.P.

The marriage appears to have not lasted very long as a item in the newspaper of July 15, 1828 reports on the suit for libel for divorce in Hall Co., Superior Court March Term 1828. Francis Whitlock sued Isaiah Whitlock for divorce. "It appearing to the Court from the return of the Sheriff, that defendant is not to be found in the County, therefore ordered, that service be effected in the above case by publication of this Rule once a month for three months, in some public Gazette of this state or by serving a copy of this Rule of the defendant, three months before the next Term of this Court. A true Copy from the minutes of Hall Superior court, July 1 James Law, clk"

Their only child a son, Milledge G. Whitlock was born April 14, 1828.

In 1832 Isaiah Whitlock is listed as one of drawers in the 1832 Gold Lottery of Georgia. The property listed is in Baldwin Co., Military District 320, Lot 629 Dist 2 Section 1.

In the Western Herald newspaper for June 4,1833 there is an item regarding a Sheriffs Sale for June for Forsythe County for the sale of land belonging to Isaiah Whitlock to satisfy a debt to Cary W. Jackson. The land is Lot 819 District 2 Section 1. There are no other details regard what this related to. There is also an undated entry also for Forsythe Co. re 649/2 again with Cary W. Jackson.

In 1836 there is an Isaiah B. Whitlock shown in The Headright and Bounty Grants of Georgia. The property is in Wayne Co., Grant Book R-5, Page 284. This is for 1,000 acres of land.

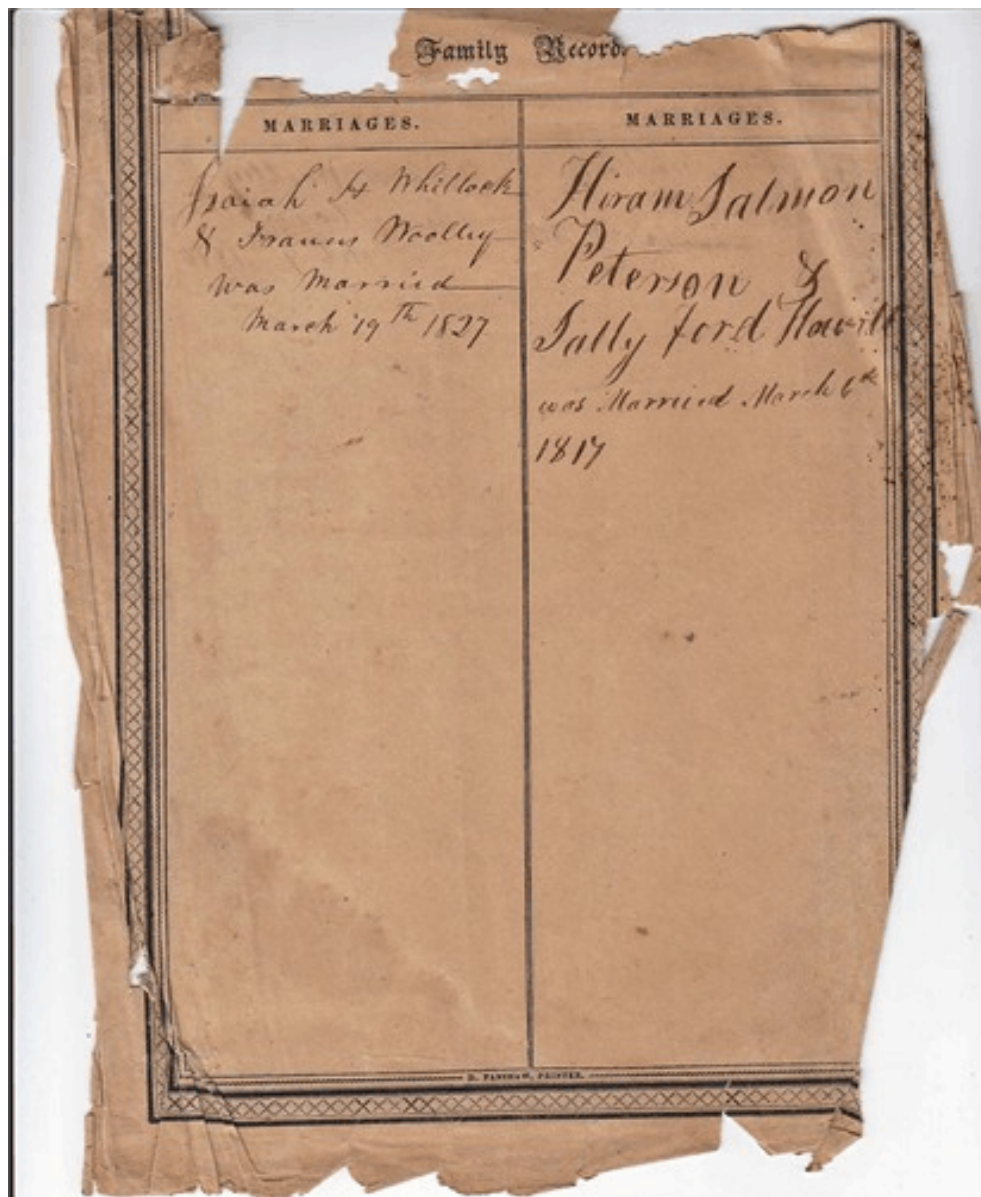

Frances Wolley was born Feb.9,1809 and died May 31,1864. She is buried in Cobb Co., Georgia.

Their son Milledge G. Whitlock became a prominent business man in Marietta, Georgia and his large house there became the Whitlock Inn.

Isaiah Whitlock's family is detailed on the WHITLOCK86 chart but we have not yet determined who his parents were or when or where he died.

CHARLES WHITLOCK (1826-) CIVIL WAR SECRET AGENT

On a recent visit with Edith Carlson of Eagle Point, Oregon, she gave me copies of several items relating to members of the WHITLOCK09 family, The Whitlocks of Connecticut. One these was a copy of page 597 from Volume III of the 1886 Book "The History of Chicago" by A.T. Andreas. The item was included in the "Telegraph and Express" section and referred to the life of Charles Whitlock:

"CHARLES WHITLOCK, general manager of the Inter-State Telephone Company, son of Zalmon & Sarah G. Whitlock, was born at Plymouth, Conn., on September 12, 1826. He received a liberal education in the schools of his birthplace and remained at home assisting his father in the manufacture of agricultural implements and machinery until he reached his majority. He then engaged in the same line of business on his own account at Purdy Station, which he continued for four years, and went into the real estate business in Brooklyn, N.Y., with which he combined building, buying and selling etc., where he remained until the War began. During the Rebellion he was in the Government service, and, at the cessation of hostilities, returned to Brooklyn and resumed business. Since 1880, he has been interested in electrical inventions, devoting much of his time to the telephone. In April, 1883, he came to this city in the interest of the celebrated Hopkins telephone patent, and has since been engaged in the development and organization of the company of which he is now manager. The innovation which Mr. Whitlock has been instrumental in placing before the public is another step forward and beyond any electrical invention yet produced, and it is undoubtedly destined to prove of greater benefit to the world than the telegraph. Mr. Whitlock was married on May 18, 1850, to Miss Emma Osborn of New York. They have three children, - Albert E., Belle and Charles, Jr."

Charles Whitlock was one of the four children of Zalmon Whitlock & Sally Gorham. Our records show he married Emma Culver Osborn May 13, 1851 in New York City.

In the article it mentions Charles was in "Government service" during the Civil War. Edith Carlson also provided a copy of a Civil War document indicating the type of "Government service" Charles was in. He was a Secret Agent!! An item from November 13, 1862 shows Charles Whitlock reporting to Major-General Burnside in Washington, DC on the location of Confederate forces and General Lee's headquarters at Orange Court House. He also comments on the condition of the forces and their food supplies.

Our thanks to Edith for this very interesting addition to our files.

November 13, 1862—4 p. m. (Received 4.20 p. m., 13th.)

Major-General BURNSIDE:

The following information just received through General Heintzelman's headquarters:

General Lee's headquarters at Orange Court-House; Longstreet at Culpeper; D. H. Hill is at Culpeper; A. P. Hill and Jackson in the Valley of the Shenandoah, part at Newtown, at Staunton, and at Thornton's Gap. A small force at Snickersville Gap and at Ashby's Gap. Conscripts and recovered sick and wounded have arrived, and about made up the loss at Antietam.

Was at Culpeper Friday. No forces at Richmond; army in good condition; use carpets for blankets; have bread and meat enough for the present.

CHARLES WHITLOCK,
Secret Agent.

J. C. KELTON,
Assistant Adjutant-General.

WHITLOCKS OF SOUTH SHIELDS, DURHAM

The following was written by Robert Walter Whitlock for a display being organized by the Tyne & Wear Museum:

Rob's story

Moving With The Times: Whitlocks-Kennedys-Scarfes of South Shields

While my family's history is relatively simple - no illegitimate births, unknown fathers or criminal behaviour, it is one which follows historic changes in England and Canada. South Shields played a small but crucial role in that history.

Nottingham to South Shields

The Whitlock family had been centred in Nottingham between 1650 and the late 1800s. The demise of the lace industry likely contributed to the first break in that long association when my great-grandfather, Robert Stocks Whitlock, moved to South Shields to work as a marine engineer sometime in the early 1870s. In 1877 he married Isabella Kennedy, daughter of David and Martha Kennedy, at St. Hilda's of South Shields. Three of their four children survived to adulthood, including my grandfather Charles (b. 1878), brother David (b. 1882) and sister Edith "Sissie" (b. 1879).

Robert died in 1898. Quite a drinker, one story is that once in the buggy at the pub, the horse had to find its own way home.

South Shields to Canada

By the early 1900s Germany and other countries had forged ahead of England in ship-building. My grandfather decided to leave England. Their mother demanded that the brothers must travel together, and in 1903 they set off for Canada, settling in Saskatchewan. They moved to Canada as part of the Homestead program (land was free if farmed for three years).

Canada to South Shields, and back again!

My grandfather returned to South Shields often to visit his family. While in South Shields in 1915 he married Elizabeth Scarfe, daughter of Robert and Sarah Scarfe. They lived for awhile in Canada but moved back to England in 1922, we think they moved back because of my Grandmother's health. They brought with them their sons Charles "Cec" (my Dad) and David. Granddad operated a confectionary store at 114 Stainton Street. Charles and his two sons returned to live in Canada after Elizabeth's death in 1931 from TB (buried in Harton Cemetery).

Both of My Grandfather's sisters and mother remained and stayed in South Shields. Sissie lived until 1937 (married to Thomas Slater), while Isabella died in 1939.

A home away from home

I live in Vancouver now, part of the movement within Canada from farms to city, along with two of my cousins who also live here. Another cousin still farms the original homestead in Saskatchewan. My daughter lives here as well, but my son lives in Korea, teaching English as a second language. The family continues to move with the needs of the time!

I travel often to England - it is in my blood. I have recently completed a program in genealogy which will ensure that I continue to have a close connection with a country I love as a home away from home.

WHITLOCKS OF CHOLESBURY, BUCKINGHAMSHIRE - UPDATE

As the first step to determine if there is any truth to the speculation that several of the Whitlock families in America originate in Cholesbury, I ordered a copy of the Cholesbury parish registers 1576-1901, published by the Buckinghamshire Family History Society. While there are several Baldwin family entries included in registers, there is no mention of any Whitlocks either baptized there or married or buried there.

While hopefully other Buckinghamshire records may shed further light on the connection between the Whitlocks and the Baldwins, it is looking more like Cholesbury was a Baldwin location and not a Whitlock one.
