

CYRIL WHITELOCK'S 100TH BIRTHDAY

Cyril Whitelock who has had a long association with the Whitlock one name organisation and is descended from the Langtree Whitlocks, celebrated his 100th birthday last August with family and friends. Although he is not able to get about much anymore his mind is still very active and still takes an interest in politics and sport, especially Athletics so besides his centenary he also celebrated the staging of the never to be forgotten Olympics in London last summer. His sense of humour has never changed and keeps everyone he comes in contact with entertained. When people ask him what is the secret of long life his stock answer is "Keep Breathing" By Maisie Whitelock

Cyril Henry Whitlock was born in Ivyb ridge, Devon August 28, 1912 the son of George Henry & Minnie Susan (Soper) Whitlock - part of the WHITLOCK01 family.
