I have an original photo of Selina. On the back of it, in ~~her~~ her handwriting " Selina Redclift aged 32 September 1861 Bideford ". That is about the time that they left for Chatham Dockyard.

These other items I have :

- ✓ her marriage certificate - a copy from St Catharine's House hXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX no ! I used the Tombstone information for evidence.
- ✓ a valentine card "Keep this in remberance of the giver and the receiver giver Wm Redcliffe to S.Whitlocke then but become his wife after who allways live happy together it make my heart ache to think ~~xxxx~~ he is gone leaving me to morne. Janury 19 1892 "
- ✓ photo of her tombstone, which believe it or not says
" In loving memory of Selina Jewell, widow of the late William Redcliffe who died Feby 13, 1905 aged 73 years." (Mr. ? Jewell was the 2nd husband) Think what a wife and mother should be and ~~xxx~~ she was that."
- ✓ a photograph of her children, as adults with their spouse & children
- ✓ a " " of Selina in widow's weeds
- ✓ a " " " " as an elderly woman

I got the photo of the tombstone when we visited Bideford some years ago.
The items came from my mother Selina Winifred Redcliffe James from her father Albert Redcliffe, the 5th son of Selina Whitlock & William Redcliffe.

I know a bit about ^{Selina's} ~~her~~ children, etc., but, of course, none of them are direct name line Whitlocks.
I can remember Samuel Whitlock's "girls", Lydia & Lena.
