Dear Peter,

I was in Devon last week but was unable to get to Exeter as the bus and train service is not very good, and I was meeting a lot of people to whom I am related on the other side of the family.

So unfortunately I have very little information for you. Did you receive the wedding certificate I sent for William Whitlock to Catherine Scriggins.?.

I did find the burial of Elizabeth Whitlock in Appledore. She was the second daughter of William Whitlock and Jane Green and was buried on the 6th June 1880.<sup>WT-136</sup>

I also found out through a relative that Thomas William Whitlock and Elizabeth James had more children than I first thought. I don't know any dates but here are the names. Thomas, Nell (who is still alive, aged 94), Charles (also still alive, aged 91), John (who was drowned when a small boy), Florry Elsie (who married Harry Dean, I sent her birth & marriage Certs to you), Alice, Lucy & Bessie (these were twins but Bessie died young), John (a baby that died), Selina (died of Typhoid), Selina (Married a man called Edwards), Wallace (Lived in Plymouth), and Jane.

Charles Whitlock married Annie Walden and had children Barbara and Arthur. <sup>WT-13</sup>
Barbara never married but Arthur married Mary Slade (also related to me through the Slade family). They had children Vernon and Pamela. Vernons first wife died in 1976 and he has since remarried to Sheila Rice. Pamela married Brian Williams. If I get any more I will let you know.

Sincerely;

John
