Whitlock, William. Established his residence in New Brunswick. Was an Alderman of St. John, and died in that city, in 1821, aged fifty-five.

Whitlock. Four of this name belonged to the Reading Association. To wit: Hezekiah, Nehemiah, and Ebenezer, of Fairfield County, and Ephraim, of Reading. In the Queen's Rangers there was a Lieutenant Whitlock, who probably belonged to Connecticut, since he had "a perfect knowledge of the country about Norwalk," and "Proposed to burn the whale-boats which harbored there, and had infested" Long Island Sound.

Whitlock, Thomas. Was an officer in a corps of Loyalists. In 1788 he settled at St. John, New Brunswick, and was the grantee of a city lot. The Whitlock House, built by him in Prince William Street, was the second framed building which was erected after the landing of the Loyalists. He received half-pay.

whitlock, John. In 1782 he was an officer of infantry in the Queen's Rangers. He settled in New Brunswick, received half-pay, and was a magistrate of Queen's County, and a Lieutenant-Colonel in the militia.
