Dear Peter:

Thank you very much for the Newsletter. We enjoy it immensely. As you can see, I wrote my cheque weeks ago, hoping to get a note off, but no such luck. Am also enclosing $5.00 to help pay for postage and copying.

You asked in your letter of Dec. 27, 1984 if I would like a copy of the Irish Census extracts, and if so, you would send them. Yes, I would certainly appreciate this, and I hope you will let me know if I owe you more money. It must all cost you a mint as well as so much time.

I am in receipt of a pamphlet from Ireland this week that does contain a couple of addresses to which I will write, but I don't hold much hope, with all the strife in Armagh, where William Whitlock was supposedly born, in 1801.

I spent five weeks in France this fall, and have now charted, (in rough) my mother's family (GATINE), and have written for all the missing info. That took me ages, as most of the letters had to be written in French, and as you can see, I have enough problems with English.

Additions to your records:

SEEHL-15

I was born on Jan. 24, 1927 (Jean Aimée Whitlock)

John Wesley Whitlock born 8 April 1889
died March 24, 1977. d

To your marriage register:

NTR-1

Terry Ross Whitlock married Darlyn Rose Sauerwein
13 March 1985 in Lethbridge
-M-

Terry is the son of Colin Ross Whitlock
Colin is the son of John Wesley Whitlock (above)

Although I am sure to be too late for Christmas, we hope your s was a good one, and that your New Year will be everything you'd like it to be.

Best regards,

Jean Whitlock

PS will see if I can get any of airt
