Letter from Mrs. Thane Sargent
R. R. I, Box 29
Aline, Oklahoma

I am doing the family tree of the Reager family as my hobby and personal interest. I am a descendant of George Henry Reager through my mother's side. George Henry Reager was my mother's Grandfather. She never knew her father folks as they all moved (except her father) to Orland, Calif. from Missouri before she was born. Her Grandmother Reager sent her several letters (dated 1888 - 1910) that mother's father and mother had written her. Just the last few years (5 - 7) that I have found so many cousins around. So sorry Mother never knew of her Reager clan.

I had a clipping of Geo. Henry's death but the bottom was torn off where the survivors were listed. So I sent a letter to Orland Calif, newspaper hoping I would get an answer. This morning I received an answer from Mrs. Lester Jacobs. She wrote me a copy of the end of the clipping I wanted. She also said that you or Frank S. Reager may help me some.

If it is not too much trouble I would like to have you send me lists of dates of birth, death and marriages; where they were buried - name of cemetery and city and state. As much about the Reager family as you can remember. When I complete my work I'll send you a copy if you like. A Joe Rigor in Ind. has traced the fact that all Rigor - Reager - Reager - Reger - Rigour - Rigor are distantly related. Seems the original name was Reager coming from Switzerland.

My Grandfather Reager (Geo. Henry's son) was born George William Reager on Sept. 19, 1861 in Marion Co. Missouri. Married Dora Dean Joslin on Oct. 23, 1887. They had 2 children - Eula Dean, born 6-23-1888, died 10-23-1956 and Will LeRoy, born 8-19-1889, died 9-15-1894, 2 years after Grandpa died, 2-11-1892.

Dear Dora,

I,m still sorting out the pages of information that you so helpfully sent me on the names in Marion Co., Ky. of my search. Christian being my main line of search.

The one article that you sent on William and Anne Christian has been known to me for some time and I haven,t been able to find out if this couple had any children. I do know that this Anne is the sister of the very famous orator, Patrick Henry, and that this William Christian was given this Military grant for his efforts in engagements against the British over the northwest Territory land. I do not know if the one John H. Christian is their son....

As for the CORDER family line, I have traced them from Calif. back thru Marion Co., Mo. and into Virginia, I do not have a lot of documents but with the help of correspondents managed to fill out a lot of family group sheets. I,m still amazed to find they were able to travel so far and so often in the days of such hardship in traveling.

One unusual thing that I have found in the area of Orland, Ca. is this; the first Corder to come into this area was (James) Vincent CORDER, he came here in 1849 gold rush with one of his grandsons, MartinAngus Reager on a wagon train. J. Vincent Corder's wife had died in Mo. and his children were all married and living in Mo. Susannah, J. Vincent Corder's daughter had married Absalom Reager and Martin was their son (they had 6 children) anyway one more daughter of J. Vincent named Mary Virginia married Andrew S. Cleek, and yet another daughter Rebecca Ann married Thos. Henry Christian in Mo. And they all can be traced to this community today since the Reagers , Cleek and the Christians settled here in the early days of California, and their common ancestor is of course the Corder line. J. Vincent Corder died in 1850 plague epidemic. No one knows where he is buried, no marker was located. The Christians came into California about 1870.

I haven't come across anything on your Benj. D. Corder of recent dates. But in one letter 1976, I will make copies of it and you can decode it... It must belong in your line of Benj. D. Corder.

Also I,m sending some Reager info on as soon as I can get it copied.

Keep in touch, and thanks for writing.

Sincerely,

Mary,

Will you SEND ME THE INFORMATION
AUTHOR, ETC ON "GRANDPARENTS TO REMEMBER" I'LL TRY FOR A COPY
