Dear Glenn,

I've been trying to gather and mail information to you for nearly two months now. Holidays, Family Crises, and the fact that I am Director of the Kingston City Library as well as an avid genealogist, all gave me fits! The City seems to think I should do something besides doing re-search - pretty narrow minded, wouldn't you say? Ha!

Any who - we'll try again. I'm enclosing copies of materials on the various family names you are researching in our areas that I have thus far located.

WT 262 Thomas Conway Whitlock appears in the home of John and Jane Whitlock as Conway, age 4, in the 1850 census. NJ 440 The eldest child living in that home is William, age William, b ca 1837 - which would put John and Jane's marriage ca 1835/1837 if he is the eldest child. There is no record of their marriage in Roane County. In 1840, there are three "John" Whitlocks listed. Of the three, I would go with the one in Sevier County as it is the closest to Roane, Washington County second and Wilson County last. Unfortunately, Sevier County Records are very sparse prior to 1878 due to yet another "court house fire".

There was a Conway Whitlock who married Elizabeth Wright in Roane County in 1842 - John's brother perhaps and also for whom your Thomas C was named?

Thomas C. Whitlock m. Mary A. Lane 11 May 1865. M

Lane

This one is more difficult. I can't find Mary in home of parents in 1860. I have a feeling that both parents are dead. There is a Mary, age 13, in the home of Solomon Hall, along with what are probably 2 older brothers - John and William. There is a Solomon Lane (16) in home of George Littleton and an Alfred Lane (16) living in the homes of George Littleton and Bailey B. Hall respectively - possibly two more brothers. There is also a Lorenzo D. Lane (28) living in home of John Snow - he appears to be a bit too old to be a brother, but I'm sure there is probably a relationship there somewhere.

The one thing I HAVE found is: Mary A. Whitlock, interred in Harriman Cemetery, b 10 Jan 1848 - d. 15 July 1926. There is no site for Thomas C, but he could be in unmarked grave. I would advise sending for the death certificate of this Mary A. and see if the informant was knowledgeable about where she was born, parentage, etc. It is possible that she was the daughter of a Solomon Lane listed in 1840 in Dyer County, TN - but that is purely speculation based on the fact that there is also an S. Hall in that County, and there seems to be a connection between the Halls and the Lanes.

West

in Rhea County

William Thomas West m. Margaret Monday, 15 Aug 1867. Thomas West and family are living with Harty West (70) and wife, Rebecca (70) in 1870 - All say born in Tennessee. In 1860, Thomas is in the home of Hardeman West who lists wife as Susan???. I could not locate an H. or Hardy, etc. in Roane or Rhea Counties in 1850 nor could I locate the name in the 1850 statewide index nor Sistler's statewide Census series for 1850. There was a Harrmon West in Hawkins County in 1840 - close enough that it might be Hardeman.

The Wests are buried in the Glen Alice Cemetery located between Rockwood, Roane County and Sweetwater, Rhea County. Stones read as follows:

Rev. W.T. West - 1844 - 1922
Margaret West - 1850 - 1936

Again, death certificates from the Bureau of Vital Statistics in Nashville might clarify these for you.

Monday

Margaret appears to be the daughter of Pleasant Monday and wife, Webby A. There is a pretty good group of records on this family in the materials enclosed on Rhea County.

I hope this aids you with your research in Roane County. Please let me know if there is anything further we can do for you.

Sincerely,

Marjory M. Watts, Treas

MEMORIES AS RELATED BY MY FATHER AND MOTHER OF THEIR

EARLY CHILDHOOD.

W.J. 440
 Father immigrated from upper East Tennessee, near the South Carolina line, with his father and mother, John Whitlock and Jane Manif Whitlock. They road some of the way, but were forced to walk most of the way through Knoxville, Tennessee, down into Rome County known as Stockton Valley, which has been cut off from Rome forming Loudon County. To this union were born seven children, William, Martha, Suzane, Tillett R. Thomas Conway, Betty, and Sally.

Mother's people came from Virginia into Elizabethton, Tennessee where her grandfather, Judson Lane, and her father, Harem Lane lived for some time. To this union was born five children, Solomon, Alfred, Mary Ann, Tom, and Rhoda. They immigrated from there to Rome County Tennessee near a place on the Southern Railroad called Careed Tennessee, now on the Brown farm. Her father, Harem Lane, operated a Grist mill which ground corn and flour on Caney Creek, Hembry Place, during the Civil war. He left his family after the death of his wife and went to Little Rock Arkansas. Her ~~mother~~ ^{Mother} died in Elizabethton, Tennessee. Her father never returned to his children. Her mother's mother took her to Lenore City, Tennessee, where she worked in a cotton mill known as the Lenore Mill. One of the Federal Soldiers took a piece of machinery out of the mill, killing production and closing the mill until after the close of the Civil war. Her family moved to Loudon County, Tennessee where they lived until the close of the Civil war.

Father was discharged from the Company of the 5th Tennessee Infantry of the Federal Troops and came back to Loudon, Tennessee from Nashville, Tennessee and met my mother, making her acquaintance in Loudon, Tennessee. As the records show in the county clerk's Court Office of Rome County, Tennessee, they were married on the eleventh day of May, 1865, in Loudon, Tennessee, which was a part of Rome County at that time. They were married by Rev. James Johnson. To this union was born twelve children, six of which were boys and six girls, James William, John, Sarah, Tillitt, Mary Ann, Thomas Conway, Mattie, David, Elie, Liza, Rosa Alice, Luther Frederick, and Willie Mae. There are seven still living at this date, the oldest child being seventy two (72) years old. Father lived to be eighty (80) years, one month, and twenty eight (28) days old dying December 18, 1920. My mother was seventy nine (79) years old when she died July 15, 1926. At the time of their death there was fifty eight (58) grandchildren and 18 great grand-children.

On December 16, 1890, Thomas Conway Whitlock was married to Mary Rebecca West. To this marriage was born eight (8) children all in Rome County. Three of these children were girls, the other five, boys, William, Flossie, Freeman Frasier, Thomas Conway, Rosa Ann, Ralph A., Howard Hillard, and Mary Virginia. Four of these are still living.

During my lifetime, I farmed for twenty two (22) years. Leaving the farm, I worked in stores and offices for sixteen years and then was elected sheriff of Rhea County Tennessee August 5, 1920. Taking office September 1 of that year and serving for a term of two years, I went out of office September 1, 1922, not making a second election. To help the sheriff, I agreed to serve as deputy sheriff for two months, but I held the office for two and one half (2½) years and then served as sheriff of Harriman, Tenn. My health began to fail and I resigned as the Chief of Police on the thirtieth day of April, 1924, retaining the deputy sheriff position. My health giving completely June 11, 1924, I left my native state moving to Forsyth, Georgia in January 1925, later moving to Payne City, Georgia in Bibb County, where I at this time reside.

Chief of Police

Many be the memories as I look over a life spent in various occupations as a means for existance in a physical way, but above all on the second Sunday Night in August 1890, when but a boy I gave my life to the service of the Lord. I joined the Caney Ford Baptist Church, being baptized into the church by Rev. R. P. Brown. I served as Superintendent of the Sunday School from the age of nineteen until I was thirty. I left my home community then and moved to town where I joined the Trenton Street Baptist Church. I was choir leader of this church for a number of year, singing also for a number of evangelist, Charlie R. Jones, Rev. Tom Shelton, known as the blacksmith preacher, Rev. Burton A. Hall, and Rev. J. R. O. Clevelander, in the town of Loudon Tennessee. Since being in the State of Georgia and during my christain work, I have wittnessed thousands of conversion and Baptism. Being ordained as a deacon of the church when but a young man, my father was ordained at the same time. My membership is at the present in the Bellevue Baptist Baptist Church, where I still hold the position as Deacon.
