Larceny at Appledore

Sv Frederick Short, Carpenter of Appledore was charged with stealing a silver watch, valued at £1, the property of William Whitlock, on or about January 18th:-

W434

Complainant said he lived with the defendant at One End street, Appledore. The watch was in his waistcoat pocket in the chest of drawers. Witness left defendants house because he accused defendant of having stolen the watch.

P C Sanders produced the watch which witness identified as his:-Eli Philips, Bideford, stated that he got the watch, now produced from the defendant, giving his own watch and a 1/- for it. He exchanged the watch for china to the value of 8/- with Mr Murphy of Bideford.

C W Murphy corroborated the later statement.

P C Sanders deposed to making inquiries and finding the watch in the possession of the last witness:-

Defendant, who elected to be dealt with summarily, pleaded guilty and was fined £1 and costs of 14s 6d, or one months imprisonment.

Defendant was given time to pay.
