Dear Peter,
I found the following ^{marriages} yesterday!

Hillingdon, Middlesex. 21. Oct. 1807.

Samuel HIPPERSON = Susannah WHITLOCK of Hampton. by lic
Ickenham, Middlesex 2. June 1607.

George WHITLOCK = Margarete CHADWICK ^{S5}
Harefield. Middlesex. 26 - Oct 1772. - M.

Mark WHITLOCK of Galing = Elizabeth LIVING.

I doubt you will have them as none of these parishes are on the ILS. (Sorry, Ickenham is!).

Regards,

Bayl.

Dear Peter,

As you can see, we too have moved...You were obviously much more organized than I was, it has taken me until now to get down to writing letters. I have a great stack waiting, and truthfully I really do not feel in the mood even now!

My computer was in the repair shop for a week as well, and this did put a hiccup into the flow of things.. However, whilst going to pick up the computer we had to almost pass our large genealogical library in downtown Houston, so we popped in 'for half an hour' which turned out to be for two hours! As there were two of us that meant four hours spent on almost negative research.

I did find the following, I expect that you have some of them, because I believe they are on the IGI, I am including them in case there is 'that little extra' that you may have missed. Incidentally I was really looking for the BIGGS family in or around Ruislip/Uxbridge, Middlesex!

High Wycombe, Bucks. Marriages.

29 Dec 1634. David WHITLOCK to Anna BIGGE, [w].
- Nov 1636. Jos BALDWIN to Hannah WHITLOCKE.

Harefield, Middx. Marriage.

26 Oct 1772 Mark WHITLOCK of Ealing to Elizabeth LIVING.

Hillingdon, Middx. Marriage.

21 Oct 1807 Susannah WHITLOCK of Hampton to Saml HIPPERSON by Lic.

Oh I forgot to mention that the reason we have moved is because my leg was not getting any better and so we decided we needed a house without stairs. This new house is so much larger with so much more work, it does seem silly to have undertaken it at our age, on the other hand the improvement to my physical well being in just over a month is noticable, so perhaps we did do the right thing after all.

I believe I have finally found a lead to my great grandparents, I have been searching for them for so many years I was getting quite dispirited, however I have been plugging away and MAY have found the birth of my gt grandmother, now I have to try to tackle my gt grandfather. I sometimes smile when I think that I have managed to get back to the early 1500's with my husband's line of METHERELL and cannot get earlier than 1885 with my own line of MERRY. Yes I do belong to the MERRY one name society and I put the queries about as well, but no one seems to know about my poor old labouring gt granddaddy....I know they never seemed to stay in one place for long, I do wonder if they were just in front of the bailiffs... Unfortunately none of their children were born in a census year so I have had great difficulty and expense, trying to find them, still without success. I guess that's the name of the game, perhaps I should buy myself a deerstalker hat and a meerschaum pipe and find a friend named WATSON!

Now I'm gibbering! All the best to you and I do hope you are happy in your new home,

Sincerely,

Beryl
