My dear Harry

Aunt Emma sent the enclosed for you by Aunt Clara. (I should have sent before but waited for the parcel to arrive.) I think they must have had a lot of trouble with Uncle's nerves were very much upset. I think Aunt is better than she has been for some time; we have not seen anything of them since Dad's death. In fact they have taken no notice of us. I suppose we are not grand enough for them now that is married and lives at Inghly Hall, she has four children, only been married six years. How are you doing?

slow; prospering scope.

Blara is living with some friends in London, Laura and I here.
I am not doing very well just now. have only one gentleman there is so much competition nowadays, and if I do any thing else it means giving up the home. Sometimes with I had come out to you. but then the hot weather upset me so.

Arthur is going on about the same just manages to keep things going. it is a blessing the boys are healthy.
What a family yours is. it is pity Will. & Walter, have not got one or two more.

Love to yourself and Mary from your loving sister Lanny.

Please forgive me enclosing this to Florrie.
