

WHITLOCK

In the 1910 census Maggie Cobb's mother, Catherine, was living with Alvin and Maggie. She was 61 and her birthplace was shown as Iowa, which was probably incorrect.

In the 1900 census Catherine was a widow and had two daughters, Maggie (13) and Alta (10), living with her. She was shown as the mother of 7 children with 6 living. She was born in May 1849. Her birthplace was shown as Kansas.

In the 1880 census her husband is shown as Josiah Whitlock. Her birthplace was shown as Kansas. They were married 1 May 1866.

Josiah Whitlock had several brothers. It appears that 2 of them were living in Tehama County where Josiah. The 1880 census shows Josiah, 44; Anthony, 42 and William, 39. They were all born in Michigan. Leo Whitlock, a descendant of Josiah, stated that their father was William Whitlock. I am looking for an earlier census that will record the family.
