PW>You mentioned in the one about Name changes.
 PW>Wittlocks who changed there name from Svenson PW>to the first Wittlock and they are different. All they have in common is PW>that they were boatmen.

Hi Peter,
 Thanks for your response. It is really interesting how and why names got changed back in "those days". Really confusing for all us "modern day" folks, huh?

PW>I was also interested to see the name Hammack (ock) in your list of PW>interests. I have a William Hanna (Hammack) (Hammock) in Wythe Co., Va in PW>the late 1700's early 1800's. He has a brother John and both are married PW>to Whitlocks, daughters of Thomas Whitlock and Hannah Phillips who were PW>married in the 1770's in Wythe Co.???, Va. If any of this is of interest PW>to you let me know.

Peter, I haven't gotten quite that far back yet on my HAMMACKs(ocks) but just almost. I'm still in Georgia and having trouble getting some dates, etc. I'm finding out, however, that most of my older ancestors were either from Va., Nc or Sc. They had to come from somewhere to get to Georgia <g>. I note with interest your William Hanna (Hammack (ock)).
 Do you think the given name HANNA was possibly a surname of a relative?

I have recently been trying to solve the mystery of a Edna HANNAH, b.
 abt. 1780 (I don't know where). She appears on 1860 Haralson Co., Ga.
 census, living with the family of John Garney(vey) HENRY.

I then have Willoughby HAMMACK, birth unknown, died between 1820 and 1827 at Fayette Co., Ga. married to Edna ????. As far as I have been able to determine, Willoughby and Edna are possible parents of my Susan HAMMACK (ock) b. abt 1816/1818, Henry Co., Ga. m. William HENRY b. abt.
 1815, Henry Co., Ga. and Nancy HAMMACK (ock) b. Oct. 17, 1814 m. Jesse
 G. HENRY b. abt. 1811 in Henry Co., Ga.

As you can probably tell, my HAMMACK (ock) family is pretty scabbled right now. I do have the name John HAMMACK in my list but have no idea who he married or anything else other than he is shown in Taliferro Co.
 Ga. in December 1832 and then in Wilkes Co., Ga. 1833 and property transactions in Henry Co., Ga., both of those years. Confused? I am!

I do have a line of PHILLIPS in Georgia also which I just learned about this week. They are connected with my BATEMAN (mon) family.

Would appreciate any and all help I can get. I WILL have all of this figured out one of these days. I'm one of those THINK POSITIVE persons.

My grandchildren who are visiting are up and hungry so will TTYL.
 Sherry
