3rd March 1998.

Dear Mr Whitlock.

I see from the One Name Society Handbook that your are particularly interested in the name WHITLOCK and its variations.

My work involves finding subjects in Early newspapers for my customers. While doing so I have come across the Official Dispatch of Lieutenant General J. Whitlock and the ill-fated ATTACK ON THE CITY OF BUENOS AYRES.

With reports of other officers involved in the attack and the Articles of Capitulation. Also reaction to news of the affair in a leading article.£50.00
THE MORNING CHRONICLE (London) dated 14 September 1807.

We supply the complete, original newspaper with all the other news of the day. If you are interested in purchasing the issue please drop us a line or fax.

All the best,

David Godfrey.
