

John Whitelock & Catherine Foster

ANN WHITELOCK born Sept. 16 1835 in Pickering Yorks.; d. 1885 in Oxford County Ont.
m. Richard Allin 1833-1899

Children:

1. Mary C. Allin 1860-1891 m. Edward C. Corbett 1860-1940
2. George Allin 1863-1939 m. Eltie Branchflower 1868-1947
  - Norman
  - Edith
  - Spencer m. Edith Jensen
  - John Richard
3. John Allin b. 1864 d. infancy
4. Hiram Allin 1867-1947 m. Nellie Minshall 1876-1954
  - Charles William 1902-1986 m. 1925 Mary Iva Gilmore 1905-1988
    - Irvin
    - Edward Charles
    - Glen
    - George
    - James
    - Harry
    - Mary Lou m. Maynard Moore
  - Douglas 1907-1965 m. (1) Beatrice Hunsley 1901-1941
    - Helen
    - (2) Virginia Wilson
      - Ronald
      - Mark
  - Wilbur b. 1912, d. infancy
  - Edna Jean b. 1914, d. infancy
  - Jesse 1919- m. 1948 Ruby Pressey 1925-
    - Shirley 1957- m. David Husted
    - Thomas 1960-
5. Jessee Allin 1869-1919 m. Annie Simmons 1880-1962
  - Mildred 1913-1959

ALLIN
Suddenly on Wednesday, October 8, 1997 at the Tillsonburg District Memorial Hospital, Edward Charles Allin of R.R.4 Aylmer and formerly of Brownsville, in his 69th year. (Member of the Zion United Church, R.R.7 Tillsonburg). Ted Allin was a former Crane Operator at the Livingston's Industries Tillsonburg. Previously he worked for V.W. Ruckle Construction Brownsville and the Mar Mac Construction, Tillsonburg. He was a member of the Tillsonburg District Outdoorsman's Club. Predeceased by his parents: Charles Allin and the former Iva Gilmore, who were longtime residents of the Ostrander area. Much loved husband of Helen (Brazier) Allin. Loved father of four children: Terry and Cindy Allin of Port Burwell, Kathy Albright and George Jamoul of Tillsonburg, Randy and Devona Allin of R.R.1 Eden, and, Patricia and Mike Perovich of R.R.4 Aylmer. Proud grandfather of Crystal and Melissa; Nicholas and Keri; Garrett and Jaelyn; and Michael and Jason. Dear brother and brother-in-law of Irvin and Jean Allin of RR7, Tillsonburg, Glen and Marlyn Allin of Stratford, George and Gladys Allin of Halifax, N.S., Harry and Velma Allin of Port Elgin, and a sister, Marylou (Mrs. Maynard Moore) of Delhi. Predeceased by a brother James Allin. Survived by an uncle Jesse and an aunt Ruby Allin of Tillsonburg. Survived by nieces, nephews and cousins. Dear brother-in-law of Ralph and Marion Brazier of Tillsonburg, and survived by a sister-in-law Nancy Brazier who was predeceased by her husband, Richard "Dick" Brazier (1981). Resting at the Verhoeve Funeral Home, 262 Broadway, Tillsonburg for funeral service in the Chapel Saturday at 1 pm by Rev. Don Keenlside of the Brownsville United Church. Interment Delmer Cemetery. The family would appreciate memorial donations to the Brownsville United Church Memorial Fund. The family will receive friends and relatives at the Verhoeve Funeral Home (842-4238) on Friday 2-4pm and 7-9 pm.

↑
(This is the correct spelling)