Hello Peter,

I have tried to get a reply to you but they keep bouncing back! Decided to write instead. I will first try to get my family straight for you. I am related to Edward Dixon, not Cecill. I guess I didn't make myself clear when I e-mailed you then I couldn't get my messages to you through. I sent Whit's End a bit of info and hoped he would let you know I was trying to reply!

Edward Dixon of Hilden is the son of Henry Dixon and Mary Blower, born about 1592 in Hilden, but the family Church was Tonbridge, St. Peter & St Paul.

Peter, I have the transcribed records from St. Peter & St Paul, seems Edward had two sons born in Tonbridge, or at least Christened there. :

Henry, 31 March 1634

James 25 June 1635

see death date 28 June 1635. These are the only two Children I had for Edward. And this is the Edward of Hilden! I did not know about the Miss or about Thomas.

This seems pretty positive to me!

I do not have a marriage at St. Peter & St Paul for Edward!

I will send a copy of the Dixon family tree that I have put together for England to my Ambrose of London to America. I have all but it is pretty much and you probably are not interested in them anyway.

I would love a copy of your booklet. It is always neat to see someone's work! I am trying to get this Dixon family of England put together as our Dixon family is well covered in America!

I do hope I can soon get back to you on the net! more fun!

Later, Shirley

note date of Descendants.

Lots of new info from Whit's End on some could Miss Dixon have been born in Fawley earlier? maybe 1633?
