Note: Not included above is the second marriage of 3 Thomas CAMOCKE to Francis RICH(d/o Sir Robert &

Mary BALDRY Rich), grandparents of Warwick CAMMOCK, close associate of Combs of Old Rappa Co VA (See Also Rich Visitation & See Cammocke Monument). Re Dorathe who married Richard WHITLOCKE, this family has not been researched, but given the Thomas WHITLOCK who is found in the records of both Isle of Wight and Old Rappa. Co VA with land adjacent to the families of Cammock, Combs, Thatcher, Underwood, Upton, etc., then a closer look at the WHITLOCK Family is undoubtedly warranted (Add'l WHITLOCK data will be posted to Combs Research shortly)

X3306/5

Notes: The above deed not only confirms that Mary, wife of Col. Wm. UNDERWOOD, was still living as late as 1 Mar 1660/1, but also confirms the presence of a 4th Wm. UNDERWOOD - one who was an adult in 1660, who remains unidentified, and who was also able to sign his name. Might he have been the first UNDERWOOD husband of Elizabeth?
Also note that in reference to the 238 acre Bever Dam parcel, that by 1667, a two-thirds moiety of said land was owned by Archdale Combs I through a series of deeds still being organized.

Although Col. William UNDERWOOD is not found alive again in 1661 (no signature), he is named in several records that year with no inclusion of the word, "deceased" (as was usual), including a land patent by Samuel NICHOLLS that reference the above 688 acres:

20 Sep 1661 (VA Patent Book4:301(411) Samuel NICHOLLS, 688 A in the freshes & upon N side of Rappa. Riv. beg at Whitlocks Cr., running to a white oake dividing this from land of Thomas WHITLOCK, dec'd. &c. Part

Col. William UNDERWOOD had died by 11 Mar 1662/3 when Margaret & Mary WILLIAMSON, daughters of James & Ann [UNDERWOOD] Williamson, patented 882 A in Old Rappahannock Co VA "between some of the head branches of Pepetick Cr. & head branches of Mr. POPES Cr., beg. nigh Rappa path &c. to the head of land of Silvester THATCHER & Thomas WHITLOCK, thence NW &c. upon land of Tho. WRIGHT &c. Granted to William UNDERWOOD, Gent., 10 Sep 1658 & given to the above named by the last will of said UNDERWOOD." (VA Patent Book 4:102(597), Cavaliers & Pioneers, Vol. I, p. 429)
