Hi again, Chuck,

I'm really new at this. I've only traced my family as far as my g-g-g-grandfather, George Clinton Whitlock who was born in Vermont in 1808. I attempted a posting about him, but it didn't go through. I haven't tried again.

My Whitlocks settled in Iowa, beginning with G.C., who co-founded Iowa Wesleyan College in Mount Pleasant, Henry County. From there they moved to Albia, Monroe County.

I need to get more serious in my research. I'd love to see where my line links up with all of you other Whitlocks!

Dear Peter,

Thankyou so much for taking the time to respond to my note. It's very interesting that you have a George Whitlock born in Vermont in 1808. My George Whitlock travelled around quite a bit before lighting in Iowa. He lived in New York and taught at a college in Ontario before coming to Iowa. Do you have burial information on that George Whitlock? Perhaps they are one and the same.

As I said in my note, I'm really just getting started at this. George Clinton Whitlock is such an intriguing figure he has piqued my interest in family history. We are fortunate to have quite a bit of information about him-- letters, papers, and photos including daguerreotypes. Additionally, there is lingering family lore. He was a Methodist minister and lecturer and, by reputation, an ardent abolitionist. He also wrote books on geology and surveying. I would love to know where he hooks up with the Whitlocks worldwide.

I am very interested in the Whitlock Family Association. Please send me the materials mentioned, and let me know if I can send something to cover costs of postage, photocopying, etc.

Sincerely,

Laura Whitlock

Dear Peter,

Yes! Your George C. is my George Clinton Whitlock. His wife was Maria Frisbee. His son Newton O. Whitlock is my g-g-grandfather. How exciting. What do I do next?
