Dear Peter, I now have more info re Mary Ann WHITLOCK. She married Stephen DORMAN in 1829 in London. She came to Oz in 1860 to Victoria. She died in 1882 in Bendigo at age 81 years. That makes her birth year around 1801. She could have married thia WHITELOCK chappy anywhere between 1818 and 1828 but probably 1820ish. I have the Parish record entry from her second marriage and she signed her name as Mary Ann WHITELOCK. I cannot read the witness names. Does that help any?
Cheers for now, Anne from sunny Cairns.

Dear Peter, Yes, you are excellent!! That is exactly so.
Mary Ann WHITELOCK (WATERS) married Stephen DORMAN in 1829 in London.
They
had two boys that I know about:
Stephen c18Jun1831 in London.
Morgan James c26Jun1833 in London.
Both boys came to Oz in the early 1850s maybe with John George??
Stephen settled in the Bendigo area and aparently ran a pub there.
Morgan (my 2xgreats granfather) travelled up around this way before marrying. He left at least one half aboriginal daughter behind. He settled in Ballarat. He was a carpenter. He married
Bridget Wilson in 1856 in Ballarat.
They had four boys:
George b1865, never married, d18Feb1900 Ballarat.
Albert b1867, m1898 to Caroline Louisa PITTARD, d20Aug1919, B'rat.
Morgan James 1869, d5Feb1874 B'rat at 5yrs.
William b1870, no other info.
Albert was my great granfather.
They had four kids; (I'm missing that page we'll see how good my memory is today!!)

He and Ada had four kids:

Margaret Pittard (my mum) b19May1923 at Ararat, m 6Dec1950 to George Melville SMITH, d1976 in Melbourne.

Benjamin Spencer b24 Apr1926. Ada died two days later from an infection. He died 13Feb1947 in Newcastle NSW. He came off his motorbike in the rain one night and a fence spike got him. He was 21yrs old. No kids.

Albert and Charlotte had one daughter Ruth Cowley DORMAN b1936. She is still alive so can't give you more details.

There were five of us;

Allan b1951.

Anne (me) b1952.

Margaret b1954.
