Dear Peter,

I must emphasize that I do not agree with quite a few of Colin White's links, I sent his file to you for general interest and to illustrate the ideas of another Whitlock researcher. Some of his dates are incorrect, I did not point these out, and have not checked all of them.

Now to try and answer your queries;

1 and 3 both refer to a baptism 12 Feb. 1687, I transcribed this entry as ROBERT son of RICHARD, this is confirmed by Colin White. Therefore only one Richard no problem with marriage.

2 My previous sources also all show Dinah's name as Whitlock, but after receiving Colin's e-mail with his marriage link to Richard, I took another look at the film of the original P. R's, which fortunately I had at the LDS, FHC at the time. It is definitely WHEELER not spelt as Colin showed, I took a copy and will send it to you when I send the cash for the stamps. When you see it you will be surprised how it was ever transcribed as Whitlock.

4 James Whitlock's bpt. I have rechecked this and decided it is 28 December 1685. Thank you for the marriage details.

5 Agree three possibles
Sarah of Robert & Elizabeth, Mar 1733, marriage age would be 32y of Pitton
Sarah of Henry, Dec. 1739, age at marriage 26y of Pitton
Also Sarah of Francis & Susanna Apr. 1734, age at marriage 31y of Farley. My pick would be daughter of Henry, but only a guess.

Colin has the idea that his Whitlock family were all of Pitton, but there was no reason they should marry Farley families.

William Whitlock to Ann Beecham who knows?

6 I find I have a transcript of this marriage, forgotten all about it, 19 Dec 1764 at St. Thomas, Salisbury No 80, by license Robert Whitlock of Pitton to Elizabeth Ford. Witnesses Geo. Carter & Highmore Skeats

7 Colin has wrong year, have pointed this out to him, definitely 1752 though the bap't's. in Winterslow, before this date, are a mystery.

A Sure these came from me, I sent Wendy all my early information for her Whitlock link , which I understood she did not have, had John previously, and recently noted Mary as well, part of same entry presumably twins, from memory entries VERY cramped and difficult to differentiate.

B Please send more details, as far as I know only one Robert married to a Hannah around 1734 this was Hannah Yeats.

Please send any other queries including dates will help if I can.

The book Wendy was referring to as I expect you have already deduced was Ralph Whitlock's, "A Victorian Village" once I saw the photos recognized it.

We are off for a short holiday, first for several years, from 10 to 19, thought I should let you know in case you wonder why I am late replying.

Kind regards,

Quintin
