The following deed was found on page  a 0, Deed Book Q. Louisa County Virginia.

This Indenture made this 9th day of August one thousand eight hundred and twenty five, between William Whitlock jr. party of the first part and Meriwether Wright of the second part and David Lipscomb of the third part all of Louisa County. Witnesseth that the said Whitlock hath become indebted to said Lipscomb for a certain tract of land purchased of said Lipscomb lying and being in the County of Louisa on the head waters of Christopher's run containing one hundred acres for the sum of two hundred and fifty six dollars for which the said Whitlock hath executed four bonds. The first for sixty two dollars & fifty cents payable on the 25th Dec. 1826. The second for sixty two dollars & fifty cents due on the 25th Dec. 1827. The third for sixty two dollars and fifty cents due on the 25th of Dec. 1828 and the fourth for sixty eight dollars & fifty cents due on the 25th of Dec. 1829. To secure the payment of these bonds is the object and meaning of this indenture. Therefore and in consideration of the debts aforesaid and the further sum of one dollar the said M. Wright in hand paid to the said Whitlock the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, he the said Whitlock hath granted bargained and sold unto the said Meriwether Wright the above mentioned tract of land which is conveyed to said Whitlock by an indenture of bargain & sale from David Lipscomb and wife and recorded in the County Court of Louisa to which reference may be had for the boundaries and all the estate title and interest of him the said William Whitlock jr. in the said tract of land. To have and to hold the same with the appurtenances unto the said Meriwether Wright his heirs and assigns forever, in trust and upon these express principles (to wit) that the said trustee shall suffer and permit said Whitlock to remain in possession of the said tract of land and to cultivate and improve the same at his descretion and receive the profits thereof to his own use, until he the said Whitlock shall make default in payment of said bonds and if said Whitlock shall not have fully discharged the aforesaid bonds before the time the last bond becomes due, that then the said trustee at any time thereafter if required by the aforesaid Lipscomb his heirs, administor shall proceed to sell and dispose of at public auction for ready money the tract of land hereby granted. One month's notice of such sale being publicly given the money arising therefrom so far as it will extend, or shall be needful, after defraying the necessarily expense of recording and carrying this indenture full into effect, shall apply the same towards the discharge of the aforesaid bonds and interest as shall be due and the residue of the money (if Any) shall pay to the said William Whitlock jr. his heirs or and if the said bonds shall be fully paid off and discharged on or before the dates they become due, then this indenture and every article thereof shall be utterly void and of no effect. In witness whereof the said Whitlock Wright and Lipscomb hereupon set their hands and seals the date first in this indenture written.

The following deed was recorded in Deed Book W, on Pages 86 & 87, in Louisa County, Va.

This indenture made and entered into this the sixth day of February one thousand eight hundred & thirty eight, between Robert A. Whitlock of the first part, John Terry of the second part and William B. Shepperson of the third part all of the county of Louisa and State of Virginia. Whereas the said Robert A. Whitlock is justly indebted to him the said William B. Shepperson in the sum of five hundred dollars, as will appear by a certain promissory note bearing even date with these presents payable three months after date; the punctual payment of which said debt, he the said Robert A. Whitlocke is willing and desirous to secure to him the said William B. Shepperson, his executors administrators or assigns. Now this indenture Witnesseth, that for and in consideration of the promises and also for the further consideration of one dollar of current money of Virginia to him in hand paid before the sealing and delivery of these presents the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged he the said Robert A. Whitlock has granted, bargained, and sold, aliened enf off, released and confirmed, and by these presents, doth grant, bargain, sell and convey alien, enfe off, release and confirm unto him the said John Terry his heirs and assigns forever, the following property to wit: one roadway waggon, five horses & gear for the same; one farm waggon; also all the right, title and interest of the said Robert A. Whitlocke in the tract of land in the County of Louisa, upon which the said Robert A. Whitlock's mother, Mrs. Nancy Whitlocke now resides, and which interest is two sevenths. To have and to hold the said personal property above described together with the right title and interest in the tract of land aboved described unto him the said John Terry his heirs and assigns forever. But in trust nevertheless, and for the following uses, intents and purposes, and none other, that is to say, that if the said

Robert A. Whitlocke his heirs executor or administration shall not have fully paid or satisfied to him the said William B. Shepperson his executors administrators or assigns, the said sum specified in said promissory note above described, when the same shall have become due and payable, that then and in that case the said John Terry his executors or administrators shall thereafter when thereto required by him said William B. Shepperson his executors, administrator or assigns, proceed to sell at public auction to the highest bidder for ready money the said road waggon five horses & gear; one farm waggon and the right title and interest of the said Robert A. Whitlocke in the tract of land in the County of Louisa on which the said Robert A. Whitlocke's mother, Nancy Whitlock resides, or so much and such part of the hereby granted property as the said trustee or his representative hereby authorized to act shall think sufficient for the purpose and shall think proper to sell, having first fixed the time and place of the sale at this discretion and given ten days notice thereof by advertizement posted at the door of Louisa Court House and make execute and deliver to the purchaser or purchasers thereof, good and sufficient title thereto by deed or other writing sufficient in law to assure & suss such title agreeably to the sale so made and the powers hereby given. And out of the monies arising from such sale shall proceed without delay first to discharge the costs and expenses of such sale the fees for drawing and recording this deed, if then unpaid and all other the proper and necessary charges and expenses attending the execution of the trust hereby created. Secondly shall pay to him the said William B. Shepperson, his exerutors, administrators assigns the said sum of money in said promissory note mentioned, with all interest which at the time may have lawfully accrued thereon, or such part of the said debt and interest as at the time of such sale may remain unpaid and the residue of the money arising from such sale, if any shall pay to him the said Robert A. Whitlocke his executors, administrators or assigns, and also upon this further trust and confidence that such trustee hereby authorized to act, shall permit the said Robert A. Whitlocke and his heirs and all persons holding under him or them, to hold quite and peaceable possission of the said property hereby conveyed and take the profits thereof to his use, unto a sale of the same shall be made under the provisions of this indenture, he paying all taxes and other public dues and charges thereon during the time of his so holding the same. But if the whole of the said sum of money in the said promissory note mentioned shall be fully paid and satisfied on or before the sixth day of May 1838 to him the William B. Shepperson his executors, administrators or assigns then this indenture and every thing herein contained is to be void, else to remain in full force and vitrue. And the said Robert A. Whitlock for himself and his heirs, the said property herein before mentioned and conveyed, with a good and perfect title, to him the said John Terry his heirs and assigns free from the claim or claims of him the said Robert A.
