Subject: hello

I am trying to trace my indian heritage which is on my Fathers side of the family ...we have been told that my Dads grandmother was full cherokee, we have no proof of this so far.

Her name was Fannie Whitlock she married Emory S. Wilson, my brother is going to try and get me names so I will have more info. she was married in Gainesville Ga but I'm not sure where she was born.

Thanks Elaine

Fannies kids were,
Julius
Jasper
Bud
Jeff (I was told Fannies father was named Jeff) Amanda (my grandmother) she married Robert L. Dyer
Martha (married Dan Mcquaid)
Mary Bell
Francine
Robert
Jesse
Mary (married Bill Jordan)
one deceased at birth
Fannie married Emory Wilson on May 11, 1904
My Dad is Ernest Lee Dyer (which is Amanda`s son)

I wish I knew more. I do know that Fannie and Emory were very poor and my grandmother Amanda refused to have contact with her mother when she married, I wonder if this is because the indians were considered low class people..Thank you for your interest and help

I have been studying the names over and over, How did you get those names its amazing, You have Fannies Dad married to Maudy? well my grandmothers name is Amanda and she was called "Mandy" I wonder if Maudy`s name is Mandy? I just wish I knew more info on my "Fannie" My dad told me this morning that Fannie had a sister named Hattie, and she married Arlo Lloyd....thats a strange name "Arlo" also my Dad said Fannie`s family did live in Jackson county.....anyway how can I piece together Fannie`s connection with Indian Heritage, this stuff is so interesting. Why didn`t these people keep better records, makes me wonder. Thanks again Elaine
