Message Board Post:

The many Green Co. friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Strader will sympathize with them in the loss of their little son, Russell, 8 years of age, whose death occurred at St. Anthony Hospital, in Louisville, on 28 Dec 1929 of cerebral hemorrhage. The little fellow was taken ill at the beginning of the holidays, growing worse each day. It was thought best by his physician and a specialist from Louisville, that he be taken to that city for treatment. On Sat morn his parents left with him for the Hospital, but he only lived an hour after reaching there. He was an unusually bright and energetic child; was so loving and helpful. Home seems so quiet and lonely now with out his presence. Yet, we know God doeth all things well, and that he never makes a mistake, feeling that heaven is nearer and dearer than ever before, because of our treasure thatâ€™s there. He leaves a father and mother, 2 brothers, Crawford and Clifford, of Detroit, Mich and a little sister, Lois at home who was his constant companion and playmate. The funeral services were held at the home Mon afternoon, conducted by Rev. J.L. Robinson, Pastor of the First Baptist Church at Campbellsville and the little body was tenderly laid to rest underneath a mound of flowers in beautiful Brookside cem. The following of his little boy friends acted as pallbearers: Omer Stubbs, Alvin Wilcoxson; Alton Baldock, Clement Whitlock, Clifton and Charles Biggs.
