Comment = I am in London, England and would like to know if you have any information about Jonathan Landymore( or variant spelling) & Elizabeth Whitlaock as I am not able to read your files on the website.

Thank you for your help with this enquiry.

I am doing a one-name study of Landymore & variants.

Yours sincerely,

Lauretta Harris

Thank you so much for your quick response.

This is very interesting. But like so many answers, now poses more questions!

Jonathan Landermore/Landymer/Landymore was from Wattisfield, Suffolk - bap 12 oct 1755 in Wattisfield. He was the second son of John Landymer b. Ixworth, Suffolk married 15 Nov All Saints Hopton, Suffolk Mary Moor b. Wattisfield.

On 3 March 1783 Jonathan married Elizabeth Pain in Salhouse, Norfolk (Ref: Banns No 53 of 9, 16, 23 February 1783 & Marriage No 73 Salhouse Parish Registers) and their son Jonathan was born circa 1784 and baptised 18 April 1784 in Woodbastick Norfolk. So I wonder where Elizabeth Whitlock fits into his love life???! The payment of £60 was a considerable sum for an illegitimate child so Jonathan must have been fairly well off at that time.

At the end of their lives they had become two of the poor of the parish of Wroxham, Norfolk. Jonathan & Elizabeth were subject to a Removal Order on 5 October 1811 to return to Wattisfield. Jonathan however died a few days later. His third son John was the subject of a Settlement Examination on 1 March 1822. Here is a transcript of the document, the bold writing being handwritten on a printed Settlement Form

Norfolk The Examination of John Landamore to wit of Wroxham in the said County Labourer taken on Oath before us two of His Majesty's Justices of the peace in and for the said County this first day of March 1822.

Who saith that he is 31 years of age and was born within the parish of Wroxham aforesaid in lawful wedlock - but that the father of him this Examinant then resided within the said parish of Wroxham ..... a certificate from the parish of Wattisfield in the County of Suffolk - 'That about 9 or 10 years since his said father being then deceased he this Examinant let himself to serve Daniel Green of Wroxham aforesaid potter from the then Michaelmas until the Michaelmas following at and for the weekly wages of twelve shillings per week for the winter half year and one pound per week for the summer half year - That in poursuance of such contract - the this Examinant did serve the said Daniel Green within the said parish of Wroxham that whole year That he hath not since to the best of his knowledge done any act whereby to have joined a settlement else where - having been particularly examined there to.
