Peter:

I finally was able to make copies of the will of my grandfather, William Amos Whitlock. I will post it to you today. While I was going through a very large amount of records, I located the decree for divorce between William A. Whitlock and Josephine M. Whitlock. As it turns out, Josephine was the second wife of William Amos Whitlock. Bettina D. Whitlock nee Thompson was his third and final wife. Apparently, Mary Taylor and Ida Hawkins were paramours of his. My mother, Elizabeth Catherine Wilson nee Whitlock thought that Mary Taylor was his second wife and Ida Hawkins his third. She recalled meeting them and was able to describe them. My mother was raised by her aunts & uncle. Her mother, Elizabeth C. Whitlock nee Clohesy was a modiste and she was busy with her career.

I am going back to the archives of Cook County today to make copies of one more document concening Bettina D. Whitlock, Josephine M. Whitlock and William Amos Whitlock. I will also send a copy of it to you.

Hope that you are well and that you are enjoying this beautiful season.

Jim

Peter Whitlock:

Yes, I do have a copy of the will of my grandfather, William Amos Whitlock and I will make a copy of it and send it on to you.

I tried to find out the identy of Josephine M. Whitlock but did not find much. I'll also send that information to you.

Great hearing from you.
