Hi, Peter:

Had the pleasure to speak with a Mrs. Lynne Whitlock the other day. She played the organ in my church one Sunday but I didn't get a chance to speak with her. She is the wife of Rev. Clifton Edwin Whitlock, born in 1950. I have seen his name in the newspaper several times for conducting funeral services and a few weddings. Mrs. Whitlock stated that they have a lot of info on his family but everything was packed up as they were getting ready to move. They will still be living in Chesapeake, VA and she has promised to call me as soon as they are settled to give me his info. Rev. Whitlock and my distant cousin, Jerry Whitlock of Hampton, VA, are friends. Don't know how they met. The Whitlocks and I have mutual friends, too. However, my friends did not know my maiden name. They are not into genealogy and history, so I guess that is why. The Reverend Whitlock is a Methodist pastor and I, too, am Methodist. Don't know why we never met before. Could be my church is in downtown Norfolk and his is in Chesapeake.

Mrs. Whitlock said her husband was the son of Logan Thomas Whitlock, Sr., ca. 1905-1972. His grandfather was a Captain Logan Whitlock of the Confederate Army. I have seen that Logan Whitlock many times while I was hunting my Confederate ancestors. The name kept popping up but I have not been able to place him in my immediate family.

I noticed in your last newsletter that you mentioned some Whillocks. Don't know if I am related to any but went to high school with a girl by the name of Anna Mae Whillock. Everyone thought we were sisters. Even though she was a couple of years ahead of me, we met a few times and talked but neither of us knew much of our backgrounds at that time. She is now deceased and there are no Whillocks listed in the phone directory at this time.

I have a 1961 Hill's Norfolk City Directory, copyright 1961 by Hill Directory Co., Inc., which lists the following on the Whillocks:

- Whillock, Annie E. (wid. Rufus A), 4701 Killiam Ave.
- Thomas (golf pro) same address
- William A.           "       "

Maybe this will help you and some of our "cousins".

This info fell out of a folder recently and I am passing it along for what it is worth:

Izard B. WHITLOCKE

Clerk of Court, Henrico Co., VA, Oct 1819 - Feb 1820

Don't know when and where I found this info and had actually forgotten about it.
