

Posted: Tuesday, May 4, 1999 12:00 am | Updated: 3:12 pm, Tue May 11, 2010.

Louis "Lou" Amaya

Louis "Lou" Amaya, passed away April 14, 1999 at Integris Bass Baptist Health Center in Enid, Okla., at the age of 77. Lou and Pat Whitlock were married Aug. 29, 1948. He was professor of foreign languages at Phillips University and started the girls basketball program there. He also played in the Final Four for Oklahoma State University in 1951 under coach Henry Iba. He is a member of the Pueblo Hall of Fame as well as the Centennial High School Hall of Fame. He is survived by his wife, Pat, daughters, Patti (Marv), Nita (Rick), and Lisa (Jack) and son, Dana; eight grandchildren, several nieces and nephews; brothers, Jim (Effie), Julian (Jean), and John (Charlotte) and sister-in-law, Betty.