Peter, I don't know this lady but the Whitlock name caught my eye. Mark Whitlock

Faye Ethel Whitlock, 97, of Litchfield, died Sunday, Sept. 18, 2011, at 8:20 p.m. in St. Francis Hospital in Litchfield, IL.

Private family funeral services will be held at 1 p.m. Friday, Sept. 23, in Plummer Funeral Home in Litchfield. Pastor Mike Bates, of Mt. Moriah Baptist Church in Coffeen, will officiate. Burial will be in Reno Bethel Cemetery in Reno, IL. No visitation will be held.

Mrs. Whitlock was born on June 15, 1914, in Reno, a daughter of the late Roy Roscoe and Ellwood Grace (Caulk) Edwards. She graduated from Beardstown High School with the Class of 1931. She married Lou Whitlock, and he preceded her in death.

She worked as a nurse's aide at both St. Francis Hospital in Litchfield and Hillsboro Area Hospital, and also operated her own antique shop, "Little Acre Antiques," located on East Union Avenue in Litchfield. She attended Litchfield Southern Baptist Church.

In her leisure time, she enjoyed birdwatching and was an avid St. Louis Cardinals baseball fan.

Mrs. Whitlock is survived by: two sons, Ronald Sugg of Springfield and Larry (wife Pamela) Sugg of Meadowbrook; two daughters, Shirley Louder of Westfield, MA, and Linda Puls of Litchfield; a brother, Chauncey Edwards of Litchfield; four grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren; and five great-great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by a brother, Paul Edwards, and a sister, Ruby, in infancy.

The family suggests memorials be given to the Reno Baptist Church
