Birth: Jun. 7, 1855

Death: Mar. 7, 1929
Coryell County
Texas, USA

Mr. William B. Nunley, age 74 years, 9 months, died March 7, 1929, at 6:30 A.M. He was born in Warren Co., TN., June 7, 1855, the son of Willis and Elizabeth "Betty" (Nunley) Nunley. His mother died when he was 7 weeks old in 1855. On July 25, 1876, he was married to Miss Minerva Isabel Whitlock in Warren Co., TN. They came to Texas in 1882 and settled near Coryell Church where they remained for 8 years, moving to the Waldo community where they have resided for the past 38 years. He was a splendid Christian man, a member of the Coryell Baptist Church. He was converted at his home in 1886, and joined the church in 1887. He had endeared himself to many as a father, neighbor, friend and citizen, and his death is mourned by all. Mr. Nunley is survived by his wife and six children, all of whom were at his bedside when death came. They are: John of Tahoka; Mrs. E.S. Kelton of Ovallo; Mrs. W. B. Edwards, Tahoka; Mrs. I. G. Holt of McGregor; W.T. Nunley of McGregor; and W. B. Nunley of this city (Crawford).

Funeral services were held at Coryell Baptist Church, conducted by Rev. Armstrong, assisted by Rev. Gipson, both former pastors of Coryell Baptist Church. Interment was in Coryell Cemetery. Pallbearers were his 3 sons, two sons-in-law, and one grandson. Funeral arrangements were in charge of Mr. C. H. Roberts, undertaker for S. Amsler & Co. at Crawford. (Obit from Irma Danklefs Nunley Information)

We do not know where William B. Nunley's (1855-1929) mother, Elizabeth "Betty" is buried, but it probably in the Nunley Cemetery in Northcutts Cove, Tennessee, since her brother, Jesse, gave the land for a Nunley cemetery. For sure Willis's father, William B. Nunley (1801-1889) is buried in Nunley Cemetery in Northcutts Cove, TN. FAG #28419332.

Nellie Clemons Kelton, 101, of McGregor, passed away Saturday, April 22, 2006. Graveside services and interment will be 2 p.m. Tuesday, April 25, at Waco Memorial Park, under the direction of Cole Funeral Home, McGregor, with the Rev. Brian Pendleton officiating. Visitation will be from 6 to 8 p.m. Monday at Cole Funeral Home.

Nellie was born in Crawford, Texas, to the late James Obie and Sallie M. (Whitlock) Clemons. She attended school in Crawford and was on the basketball team. In 1926, she married Travis B. Kelton in Crawford. Throughout her life, Nellie would tell you that she worked hard. During World War II, she was employed at the Bluebonnet Ordinance Plant in McGregor making bombs and later as a sales lady at Cuenod's Dry Goods. She was always a good homemaker, mother and a very good cook and friend to everyone. In 1942, she moved to McGregor where she made her home until she moved to Waco in 1999 to live with her daughter. Nellie was a Baptist.

Preceding her in death was her husband of 70 years, Travis, on December 25, 1996; brothers, Clarice Clemons and J.O. Clemons; and sisters, Ora Sanders, Josie Lee Elder, Velma Smith and Willie Mattlage.

Survivors include daughter, Doris Kelton La Hue, of Waco; grandson, Dennis La Hue and wife, Renna, of Arnaudville, La.; great-granddaughter, Rebecca La Hue, of Arnaudville, La.; and great-grandson, Robby La Hue and wife, Jennifer, of Pearland.

LYNN COUNTY NEWS, March 1, 1946

MRS. W.B. EDWARDS DIES IN LUBBOCK

In the presence of a congregation that almost filled the auditorium, funeral services were conducted in the First Baptist Church, Tahoka, for Mrs. W. B. Edwards, 64. Mrs. Edwards died in the Lubbock Memorial Hospital at 1 A.M., Friday, Feb. 22, 1946 from a heart attack. Services were conducted by Rev. C. J. McCarty, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, Lubbock, and two former pastors of Tahoka, Rev. B.N. Shepherd and Rev. George A. Dale. Pallbearers were 3 sons, Carlice, Boswell, and Wilson Edwards, J. B. Godwin (a nephew), a brother, Wesley Nunley, and Clarence Price. Deacons of the First Baptist Church were honorary pallbearers.

Survivors include her husband, W. B. Edwards, four daughters and three sons as follows: Eunice Lewis, Tahoka, Velma Godwin, Lola Belle Boles, and Irma Faye Buck, all of Lubbock, Carlice Edwards of Wolfforth, Boswell of New Home and Wilson of Floydada. Three brothers: John Nunley of California, Wesley Nunley of Crawford, Tx., and Talley Nunley of McGregor, Tx. Two sister, Mrs. Ira Holt, Crawford, (should be McGregor) and Mrs. Ed Kelton of Amerst. Mrs. Edwards' maiden name was Belle Nunley, born in Tennessee, on February 4, 1882. She was reared in Crawford, McLellan Co., Tx. She married Burton Edwards on Feb. 12, 1899. They came to Lynn Co., in November 1906, buying land in the Three Lakes Community, Lynn Co. They settled on this farm, later moved to Tahoka and then back to the farm where they lived until 2 years ago when they moved to Lubbock, Tx.

Mrs. Edwards was converted and joined the Baptist Church during her girlhood, and lived a devoted Christian life. She was a most helpful companion to her husband, who was a deacon at First Baptist Church for 17 years.

The wilderness of flowers gave an indication of the esteem in which she was held.

Wilson Edwards was born on February 17, 1918, in Lynn County to William Burton Edwards and Susan Belle Nunley Edwards. He was married to his wife, Laura Jane "Polly" Milliken on April 7, 1940 in Tahoka. They were married over 65 years before her death on May 15, 2005. Wilson spent most of his life working the land and farming. Wilson and Polly lived in Plains, Texas, for 10 years where he was Deputy Sheriff of Yoakum County in the 80ies. Later he worked for over 12 years as a Sheriff's Deputy for the Lubbock County Sheriff's Dept. until his retirement. Wilson is survived by his son and daughter-in-law, James Craig and Candy of Floydada, Tx., two grandchildren, Chad Edwards and Shannon Beard, and nine great-grandchildren.

Wilson will always be remembered for his love of family and his wonderful sense of humor and his unique laugh. He was loved by all.

Graveside services were held at the Tahoka Cemetery on June 14, 2010, with his great-grandson Jared Beard officiating. Zenda Benton, a niece, sang "How Great Thou Art" and was joined by all the nieces and nephews singing "Amazing Grace".

Furman Claude Nunley was the first of three sons born to Wesley B. and Bessie L. Collins Nunley. He was probably born in the Crawford area since that is where his parents always lived. His brothers were Garland Donald and Wesley Meridith Nunley.

Research on Furman Nunley shows that his spouse is Olivia S. Holcomb. The Texas Marriage Index 1966-2002 shows that he was 60 yrs. and Olivia was 48. They were married in Bosque. The U.S. World War II Army Enlistment Records, 1938-1946 show that he enlisted May 22, 1942 at Camp Shelby, Mississippi. He was a Private. His term of enlistment is stated as: "Enlistment for the duration of the War or other emergency, plus six months, subject to the discretion of the President or otherwise according to law". His WWII Army Enlistment information shows that he enlisted in Lauderdale Co., Mississippi, was married and a Private. He was a welder, was 71 in. tall and weighed 153 lbs. The Texas Death Index shows he died in Bosque Co., Texas. (from Cheryl A. Daubs, Find A Grave contributor)

Death: Mar. 7, 1929
Coryell County
Texas, USA

Mr. William B. Nunley, age 74 years, 9 months, died March 7, 1929, at 6:30 A.M. He was born in Warren Co., TN., June 7, 1855, the son of Willis and Elizabeth "Betty" (Nunley) Nunley. His mother died when he was 7 weeks old in 1855. On July 25, 1876, he was married to Miss Minerva Isabel Whitlock in Warren Co., TN. They came to Texas in 1882 and settled near Coryell Church where they remained for 8 years, moving to the Waldo community where they have resided for the past 38 years. He was a splendid Christian man, a member of the Coryell Baptist Church. He was converted at his home in 1886, and joined the church in 1887. He had endeared himself to many as a father, neighbor, friend and citizen, and his death is mourned by all. Mr. Nunley is survived by his wife and six children, all of whom were at his bedside when death came. They are: John of Tahoka; Mrs. E.S. Kelton of Ovallo; Mrs. W. B. Edwards, Tahoka; Mrs. I. G. Holt of McGregor; W.T. Nunley of McGregor; and W. B. Nunley of this city (Crawford).

Funeral services were held at Coryell Baptist Church, conducted by Rev. Armstrong, assisted by Rev. Gipson, both former pastors of Coryell Baptist Church. Interment was in Coryell Cemetery. Pallbearers were his 3 sons, two sons-in-law, and one grandson. Funeral arrangements were in charge of Mr. C. H. Roberts, undertaker for S. Amsler & Co. at Crawford. (Obit from Irma Danklefs Nunley Information)

We do not know where William B. Nunley's (1855-1929) mother, Elizabeth "Betty" is buried, but it probably in the Nunley Cemetery in Northcutts Cove, Tennessee, since her brother, Jesse, gave the land for a Nunley cemetery. For sure Willis's father, William B. Nunley (1801-1889) is buried in Nunley Cemetery in Northcutts Cove, TN. FAG #28419332.

Nellie Clemons Kelton, 101, of McGregor, passed away Saturday, April 22, 2006. Graveside services and interment will be 2 p.m. Tuesday, April 25, at Waco Memorial Park, under the direction of Cole Funeral Home, McGregor, with the Rev. Brian Pendleton officiating. Visitation will be from 6 to 8 p.m. Monday at Cole Funeral Home.

Nellie was born in Crawford, Texas, to the late James Obie and Sallie M. (Whitlock) Clemons. She attended school in Crawford and was on the basketball team. In 1926, she married Travis B. Kelton in Crawford. Throughout her life, Nellie would tell you that she worked hard. During World War II, she was employed at the Bluebonnet Ordinance Plant in McGregor making bombs and later as a sales lady at Cuenod's Dry Goods. She was always a good homemaker, mother and a very good cook and friend to everyone. In 1942, she moved to McGregor where she made her home until she moved to Waco in 1999 to live with her daughter. Nellie was a Baptist.

Preceding her in death was her husband of 70 years, Travis, on December 25, 1996; brothers, Clarice Clemons and J.O. Clemons; and sisters, Ora Sanders, Josie Lee Elder, Velma Smith and Willie Mattlage.

Survivors include daughter, Doris Kelton La Hue, of Waco; grandson, Dennis La Hue and wife, Renna, of Arnaudville, La.; great-granddaughter, Rebecca La Hue, of Arnaudville, La.; and great-grandson, Robby La Hue and wife, Jennifer, of Pearland.

LYNN COUNTY NEWS, March 1, 1946

MRS. W.B. EDWARDS DIES IN LUBBOCK

In the presence of a congregation that almost filled the auditorium, funeral services were conducted in the First Baptist Church, Tahoka, for Mrs. W. B. Edwards, 64. Mrs. Edwards died in the Lubbock Memorial Hospital at 1 A.M., Friday, Feb. 22, 1946 from a heart attack. Services were conducted by Rev. C. J. McCarty, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, Lubbock, and two former pastors of Tahoka, Rev. B.N. Shepherd and Rev. George A. Dale. Pallbearers were 3 sons, Carlice, Boswell, and Wilson Edwards, J. B. Godwin (a nephew), a brother, Wesley Nunley, and Clarence Price. Deacons of the First Baptist Church were honorary pallbearers.

Survivors include her husband, W. B. Edwards, four daughters and three sons as follows: Eunice Lewis, Tahoka, Velma Godwin, Lola Belle Boles, and Irma Faye Buck, all of Lubbock, Carlice Edwards of Wolfforth, Boswell of New Home and Wilson of Floydada. Three brothers: John Nunley of California, Wesley Nunley of Crawford, Tx., and Talley Nunley of McGregor, Tx. Two sister, Mrs. Ira Holt, Crawford, (should be McGregor) and Mrs. Ed Kelton of Amerst. Mrs. Edwards' maiden name was Belle Nunley, born in Tennessee, on February 4, 1882. She was reared in Crawford, McLellan Co., Tx. She married Burton Edwards on Feb. 12, 1899. They came to Lynn Co., in November 1906, buying land in the Three Lakes Community, Lynn Co. They settled on this farm, later moved to Tahoka and then back to the farm where they lived until 2 years ago when they moved to Lubbock, Tx.

Mrs. Edwards was converted and joined the Baptist Church during her girlhood, and lived a devoted Christian life. She was a most helpful companion to her husband, who was a deacon at First Baptist Church for 17 years.

The wilderness of flowers gave an indication of the esteem in which she was held.

James Arlen Godwin was born January 15, 1936 in Vernon, Texas, to Thomas Carl and Velma Irene Edwards Godwin. Arlen went to the U. S. Air Force in 1956, went to Air Traffic Controller School, and was assigned to Madill AFB in Florida. When his father got sick in 1957, Arlen got a compassionate transfer to Reese AFB in Lubbock to help the family out with his dad. After his dad died Arlen stayed on at Reese Air Force Base until discharged in 1960.

Arlen married Barbara Kay Eastham on June 15, 1958, in Lubbock, Texas. They had three daughters, Zenda Lenée, Kimberly Zoe, and Gala Denise. Arlen was working as a traffic controller at the Amarillo Airport at the time of his death on September 17, 1980.

Arlen is survived by his immediate family and his brothers, Kenneth, Truman, and J. B. Godwin, and a sister, Doris Koshers, as well as many nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles and cousins.

Arby Nunley Edwards was the son of William Burton and Susan Belle Edwards. He died a few days after telling his family that the Big Man came to see him and told him that he was going to come and get him, but he was not to be scared. At the time of his death, Arby had two brothers, James Carlice and John Boswell, and he had four sisters. They were Velma Irene, Eunice Mabel, Lola Belle and Irma Faye. It has taken the family several years to find out the exact date of his birth and death, but now we can replace the crumbled headstone for our "Little Arby". August 6, 2010, Arby received a new headstone as a loving gift from his adult nieces and nephews.

Wilson Edwards was born on February 17, 1918, in Lynn County to William Burton Edwards and Susan Belle Nunley Edwards. He was married to his wife, Laura Jane "Polly" Milliken on April 7, 1940 in Tahoka. They were married over 65 years before her death on May 15, 2005. Wilson spent most of his life working the land and farming. Wilson and Polly lived in Plains, Texas, for 10 years where he was Deputy Sheriff of Yoakum County in the 80ies. Later he worked for over 12 years as a Sheriff's Deputy for the Lubbock County Sheriff's Dept. until his retirement. Wilson is survived by his son and daughter-in-law, James Craig and Candy of Floydada, Tx., two grandchildren, Chad Edwards and Shannon Beard, and nine great-grandchildren.

Wilson will always be remembered for his love of family and his wonderful sense of humor and his unique laugh. He was loved by all.

Graveside services were held at the Tahoka Cemetery on June 14, 2010, with his great-grandson Jared Beard officiating. Zenda Benton, a niece, sang "How Great Thou Art" and was joined by all the nieces and nephews singing "Amazing Grace".

Furman Claude Nunley

X7111/99

Birth: Feb. 18, 1918
Texas, USA
Death: Aug. 28, 1990
Bosque County
Texas, USA

Furman Claude Nunley was the first of three sons born to Wesley B. and Bessie L. Collins Nunley. He was probably born in the Crawford area since that is where his parents always lived. His brothers were Garland Donald and Wesley Meridith Nunley.

Research on Furman Nunley shows that his spouse is Olivia S. Holcomb. The Texas Marriage Index 1966-2002 shows that he was 60 yrs. and Olivia was 48. They were married in Bosque. The U.S. World War II Army Enlistment Records, 1938-1946 show that he enlisted May 22, 1942 at Camp Shelby, Mississippi. He was a Private. His term of enlistment is stated as: "Enlistment for the duration of the War or other emergency, plus six months, subject to the discretion of the President or otherwise according to law". His WWII Army Enlistment information shows that he enlisted in Lauderdale Co., Mississippi, was married and a Private. He was a welder, was 71 in. tall and weighed 153 lbs. The Texas Death Index shows he died in Bosque Co., Texas. (from Cheryl A. Daubs, Find A Grave contributor)
