

Goochland County Hix (Hicks) before 1820

Goochland County (formed 1727) Hix (Hicks) before 1820; Henrico County (1634); Parishes: Varina Parish (founded 1611 Henrico County), King William Parish (1728-1749); Saint James Northam Parish (1744-), Saint James's Parish (1728- 1744), Saint James Southam Parish (1744-1749). From its original territory came Albemarle Co., Amherst Co., (part of) Appomattox Co., Bedford Co., Buckingham Co., Campbell Co., Cumberland Co., Fluvanna Co., Nelson Co., & Powhatan Co.

[There were a whole lot of Hicks in Goochland Co., Virginia- located just 30 miles northwest of Richmond on the Northern bank of the James River. Goochland County was officially created February 1, 1727 from Henrico County, one of the first seven shires created in 1634 by the House of Burgess. Goochland was named after Sir William Gooch, the royal lieutenant governor from 1727 to 1749. Goochland originally included all of the land from Tuckahoe Creek, on both sides of the James River, west as far as the Blue Ridge Mountains.

St. James Northam, Goochland County [Meade]

Goochland County was cut off from Henrico in 1727. In the year 1744 the parish of St. James Northam, was restricted to the north side of the river, and that on the south side was called St. James Southam, both of them being in Goochland, which still lay on both sides of the river, and extended from the Louisa line to Appomattox River. Albemarle county and parish were also in this year taken from Goochland, by a line from Louisa to the Appomattox. We shall now speak of the parish of St. James Northam, in Goochland, on the north of James River. The vestry-book which we have commences at its division in 1744. How long it had been supplied with services before this we are unable to ascertain.

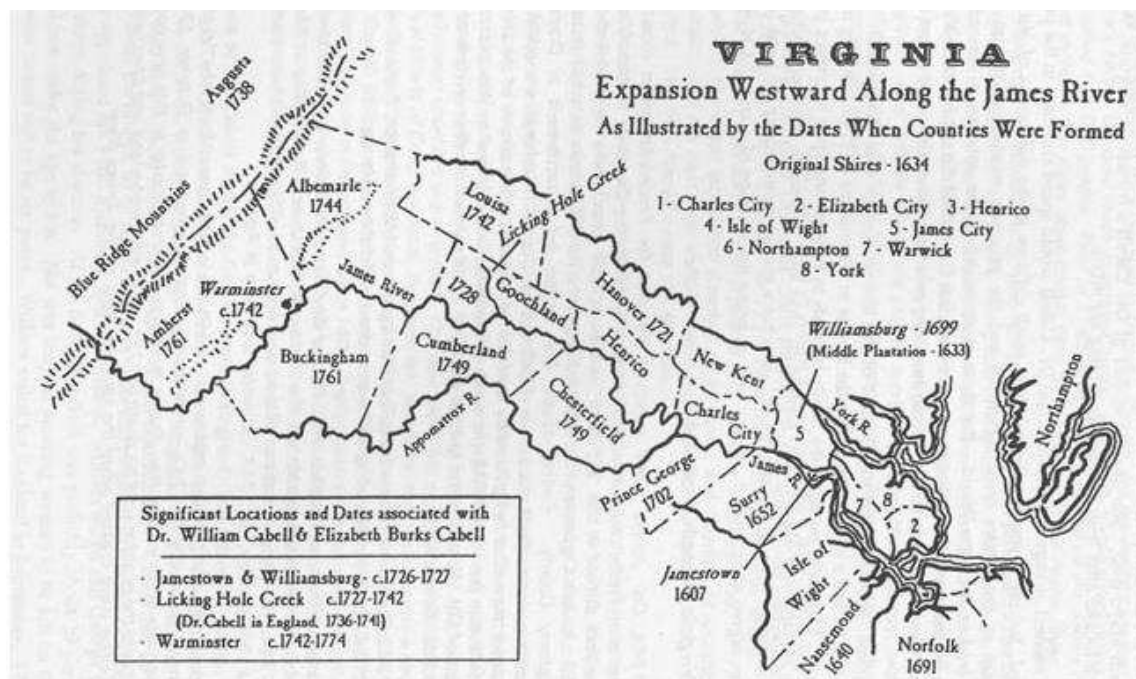

Attached to this page are Goochland County Records; deeds and births and marriages of the Hicks family.

The Samuel Hicks (Hix) family was located on Tuckahoe Creek. Other related family members were also there including Nathaniel Hicks (reportedly son of John, the doorkeeper) and his large family, Daniel Hicks (reportedly son of Robert Hicks and Katherine Ragsdale), Marmaduke Hicks, and the family of John Hicks, Nathaniel's brother.

Tuckahoe is an Indian word to denote a plant whose roots are edible and they built a village they called Tuckahoe on the banks of this creek- located between Goochland County and Henrico Co. (see map below). William Randolph of Turkey Island granted a tract of land to his son Thomas Randolph that became known as Tuckahoe, taking its name from the creek and the Indian village.

Mentioned in Goochland Court Records are Nathaniel's children: Archibald b. 1704 (as Archer or Arch'd); Amos b. 1710 and Stephen b. 1714. Rebecca presents Nathaniel's 1735 will in court there after he died. Samuel and Sarah Hicks spouse's families appear in Court Records: Whitlows, Woodalls etc.

Other families:

1. Harris Family- There are several Harris-Hicks unions, Absalom (Samuel's son) m. Mary Harris, daughter of Captain Sherwood Harris. John and Mary's son William m. Elizabeth Harris. Kennedy says: He lived in Goochland County, Virginia but may have been born in Hanover (formerly New Kent) County, Virginia. Sherwood Harris, Sr. was a first cousin of the Robert Harris who was a member of the Virginia House of Burgess from Hanover Co. On October 21, 1756 he sold a tract of land located in Goochland County, Virginia. Sherwood Harris, Sr. was probably born between 1715 and 1718. Mr. Odom believes that he was married twice, the second time to Jane, last name unknown. His will was dated June 15, 1763 and proved during the August court term in Granville Co. NC. In the will he mentioned his wife Jane, along with his six children: Sherwood, Jr., Sarah, John, Elizabeth, Ann and Mary Hicks/Hix. He also mentioned his son-in-law, Absalom Hicks. The executors of Sherwood Harris, Sr.'s will were his wife, Jane Harris, and his brother, Robert Harris, Sr.

Thomas Gilbert posted: Cary Hicks married Beverly Clark, son of Joseph and Mary Beverly Clark of Louisa County, Virginia (Doug. Reg. p. 9). The will of Joseph Clark of Louisa County was probated in 1774 and named Beverly Clark as his son. John Hicks died in Goochland in 1772 [\[see will below\]](#) and named his wife Mary Hicks and among children was named Cary Clark. The witnesses to the will were Harrison Harris, Booker Parrish and Randolph Harris. (Goochland Co. deed book 10, pp. 242-243.) Three of Mary Hick's children married the sons of Harrison Harris. One of them was Elizabeth Harris married to William Randolph Hix, son of John and Mary Hicks. (Goochland County deed book 16, pp. 463-464.) Harrison Harris, Mary Hicks and her sons gave continuously supplies and services for the Revolution as shown in the Public Claims. Colonel Benjamin Harrison of Snow Quarters Creek of Goochland County named in his will of 1790, his daughter Mary Hicks and his granddaughter Elizabeth Hicks. This points out that the mother of Harrison Harris was a Harrison; it also shows that Mary Hicks was Colonel Benjamin Harrison's daughter, all of Goochland County. Who was the father of Colonel Benjamin Harrison of Goochland County and what is his connection? (will: Tylers William and Mary Quarterly Mag. Vol. 18, p. 22. [\[See below\]](#))

HARRISONS OF JAMES RIVER. [Usually Associated with Surry/Brunswick County Hicks)

Which Benjamin Harrison "qualified as County Lieut. of Brunswick Co. 5 July, 1739, took the appointed oaths and signed the test" (Brunswick CO. Records)? Was it the Wakefield-Brandon Benjamin Harrison, or Benjamin Harrison, of Brunswick Co., who made his will in 1789 which was proved in 1790. It names sons Thomas Harrison, Benjamin Harrison, James Harrison, daughter Rita Cook (Mrs. John Cook), Harriet Reese (Mrs. Thomas Reese), Judith Collier (Mrs. Myhill Collier), Elyn Barnes (Mrs. John Barnes), Rebecca Hicks (Mrs. John Hicks), Mary Hicks (Mrs. Robert Hicks), grandsons Theophilus Harrison and Robert Harrison, granddaughters Judith Barnes and Elizabeth Hicks. Sons James and Benjamin Harrison Executors. This last Benjamin was Mrs. Love's (Frances Harrison's) father. This Harrison family were kinsmen of President Wm. Henry Harrison, and of Major Richard Harrison, N. C. militia, Revolutionary Army (who married Anne Patillo, daughter of Pres. Henry Patillo, Provincial Council, N. C.), and his brother James Harrison, Revolutionary Army, S. C. (who married Elizabeth Hampton, sister of Gen. Wade Hampton and of CO1. Henry Hampton of the Revolutionary Army), both of whom were from James River, Va., but I don't know in what degree. The Stubbs book makes the statement. I want to know who were the parents of Benjamin Harrison, who died 1789-90, and if he descended from Benjamin Harrison, the councillor, also the name of his wife? Family tradition states that the name of the wife of his son Benjamin was Martha Hicks, but one branch of the family questions this and claim that this Benjamin was Francis Harrison Love's father. Was Henry Harrison son of Councillor, who died 1732 twice married? And are the Sussex Co., Va., Harrisons his descendants? His will leaves his plantation to his nephew, Benjamin Harrison, upon the death of Henry's wife, who was Elizabeth Smith, and I always supposed he had no children, but saw in the Times-Dispatch, that the Sussex Harrisons were descended from him—Mrs. Mary H. Benning, 1420 Broad St., Columbus, Georgia. This Harrison family seems to come from a family of Harrisons in York County, Va., among whom the names Robert, Richard and James frequently occur. A full account of them has never been given— Editor,

Francis Clark of Louisa County, Virginia, Page 115:

John Hicks married Ann Harrison, daughter of Benjamin Harrison on November 1771, and witnesses were James Hicks, and John Ballard. Colonel Benjamin Harrison lived near Snow Quarter Creek of Willis' River, in Goochland County.

He and his wife, Elizabeth, had six families. Their son, Captain Thomas Hicks (1725-1797), married Elizabeth Williams, ca. 1754. They had three sons. He died in Dauphin County, North Carolina. Descendants listed lived in North Carolina and elsewhere.

David Hicks (ca. 1719-ca. 1792), a son of Samuel Hix (or Hicks) and Diana Willis, was born in Virginia. His wife's name is not known. They had six children. The family moved to North Carolina, living in two counties before finally settling on the Watauga River. Many descendants still live in the area.

David Hicks of Mary Johnson — married 1763 in Goochland, Virginia, [undocumented- might be Granville Co.]

VII. Stephen Hicks (William 2, William 1)

This son was born on Sept. 20, 1763(Jones, 228). Stephen married Polly W. Pope, daughter of Thomas Pope on Sept.14, 1795 (Williams, 48). John S[mith?]. Johnson, Stephen's nephew, was surety for the marriage.

Stephen died intestate in 1835 according to a Goochland County Chancery Case (Go.Co. Chancery Cases, 1835-024 & 1846-001). He was 72 years old. His heirs were suing William R. Hunter, the administrator, in order to settle the estate. These heirs were Mary Johnson Hicks, wife of Isaac Hicks, William Johnson, Manoah Johnson (an infant), Samuel D. Johnson and grandchildren Mary Woodson, John Woodson, Richard Woodson, Martha Woodson and Thomas Woodson underage children of Thomas A. Woodson and Catherine Johnson Woodson.

Stephen left 180 acres of land in Goochland on Byrd Creek bordering Jesse Miller, Ann Tinsley, William Hopkins, Jesse Hodges, William Terry and John Ware. Stephen's widow was not mentioned in either chancery case & it appears that she was deceased by 1835.

I recently came across this and was hoping someone may be working on the parents of Isaac Hicks who was from Virginia. He married a Mary Johnson, in Tennessee, and they later moved to Rusk Co, Texas. I am trying to confirm if this might be the parents of Mary that married Isaac. If anyone has any info on this, I would be thankful for the help. Thank you Vidia

James M. Hicks/Hix, b. c1774, born in Goochland Co., VA., who was a head of household in Lincoln Co., NC., by 1810. He remained in Lincoln Co., NC., through the 1870 census and was age 95 at that time. On the 1860 census he gave Goochland Co. VA., as his place of birth.

He may possibly have been living in the home of "John Hicks" in 1800, in Lincoln Co., NC., who was the only Hicks named as a head of household in that county at that time. John Hicks and the other 'male' in his home at that time were both in the same age group (free white males 16 to 25). This is the age group that James would have fit into and they may have been brothers. No others were shown to be in the home.

A neighbor to John Hicks household in Lincoln Co., NC. in 1800 was a man named John Yates. John Yates died by 1805 as a lawsuit regarding his estate is found in the records for that year naming his apparent heirs.

Two involved in the suit were named as Margaret Hicks (also called Peggy in other records regarding this suit) and Susy Hicks (who I believe was Susannah Hicks, who was named in other records as the name of the wife of James M. Hicks).

My theory is that John Hicks and James M. Hicks were brothers, and John was the older of the two. I believe they were living together as bachelors in Lincoln Co., NC., in 1800 together in one home, and living next door to John Yates. I believe both John & James Hicks married daughters of their neighbor, John Yates, "Margaret married John" and "Susannah married James." This part is theory, but circumstantial evidence supports it. [the 1800 census of John Hicks hh showed not only two free white males age 16 thru 25, but also 3 females under 10, 1 female 10 to under 15 and 1 female 26 thru 44.

So, while I still believe John and James were brothers living in this same hh., I do now believe that either one was likely married (John) to the female who was 26 to 44 (likely close to age 26), and that the 3 young females under 10 were his daughters...and the one 10 to 15 could have been a sister.

By 1810, John no longer appears on the census, but James does with a female the age of a wife and has children in his home including 3 females age 10 to 15 who are likely the 3 females under 10 who were in John's home in 1800.]

James M. Hicks and wife Susannah had at least 6 males and 2 females the ages to be their children by the 1820 census. I also believe Susannah died after the birth of the last child, born by 1820 and was not in the home on the 1820 census. The males who I believe for sure were five of their six sons were named:

Miles Hicks, born c1809 (records on his birth vary from 1807-1813

David Hicks, born c1811

William Hicks, born c1813

Joseph Hicks, born c1814
Singleton Hicks, born c1816

The daughters I'm not sure of, but they may have been named Phoebe and Epsey, as they later appear in marriages in this county and fit the age profile.

Miles remained in Lincoln Co., after his brothers William, David, and Joseph moved to McNairy Co., TN., with William going first, then David, then Joseph. Singleton also went to McNairy Co., TN., by 1860, but returned to Lincoln Co., NC., by 1870.

William was in McNairy Co., by 1831, and David and Joseph were on the census there by 1850. These three remained in McNairy Co., until their deaths.

Benjamin HIX was a brother to the following: Davis HIX, Willis HIX, Isaiah HIX, William HIX, Nancy HIX who m. James TARPLEY and an unknown HIX who m. William HALL. Their mother was Betty (Elizabeth?) and father was either William or Willis HIX. Davis HIX was administrator to his father-in-law's estate. This information was found at the Archives in Raleigh. These HIXES lived in the Rowan-Davidson-Randolph Co. areas of North Carolina. Isaiah HIX moved to Brown Co. IL. in the 1830's. Davis died in Randolph Co. NC. What became of the other siblings?

I am "fairly Certain" Samuel HIX was the father of Henry HICKS who died in Caswell Co., NC. His wife was Elizabeth (?). This Elizabeth moves with several of her children, to Randolph Co., NC and appears on the 1790 census there. From the Archives in Raleigh, NC I learned their family was: Elizabeth, (who married William HALL,) Nancy (who married James TARPLEY) both are in Randolph Co., by 1800 census. The sons were: Willis, Benjamin, William, Davis and Isaiah HIX/HICKS.

Thank you.

Caswell County Family Tree, some of which are based upon "The Heritage of Caswell County, North Carolina," Jeannine D. Whitlow, Editor (1985) at 579 (Article #792 "William Whitlow -- Nine Generations" by Jeannine D. Whitlow).

That article, which focuses primarily on the Whitlow family, gives the following on a Samuel Hicks:

Saumel Hicks (died c. 1772) m. Diana Unknown (Willis?)

Diana Hicks m. Nathaniel Whitlow

Diana Hicks and Nathaniel Whitlow were married 7 September 1756 and had five children. They named their first child and eldest son Goulder Whitlow. He was born 22 January 1759 in Virginia. I thought you would be interested in this use of the "Goulder" name.

I do have Nancy HIXES siblings. They were as follows:

Elizabeth HIX, married William HALL 16 June 1787 in Caswell Co. They must have moved shortly after their marriage to Randolph Co., for I find them on the 1790 census there, with 1 male and 1 female in addition to themselves. They were living beside Willis HIX, (Nancy's brother,) who married Tabitha Moore, 9 Mar. 1784, also in Caswell Co., NC. She also had a brother Benjamin, of whom I know nothing about, A William HIX, who is also on the 1800 census in Montgomery Co., NC; a brother Davis -this is MY LINE. He married Rebecca LOFLIN about 1794 in either Rowan or Randolph Co. NC. The youngest was Isaiah who married a sister to Davis' wife, Mary LOFLIN. This family moved to Brown Co., IN.

Name: Elizabeth Hicks 1

Sex: F

Reference Number: 29232

Birth: 1747 in Goochland County, Virginia 1

Death: 05 MAY 1808 in Caswell County, North Carolina 1

Father: Henry Hicks

Mother: Ann Willis

Marriage 1 Andrew Haddock b: 1742 in North Carolina

Children

Has Children Mary Haddock b: 1765

Has Children Richard Haddock b: ABT 1766 in Caswell County, North Carolina

The Source for the names of the siblings is found in the LOFLIN file at the State Archives in Raleigh. The reason for its being in the LOFLIN file, is because Davis HIX was executor of his father in law's estate in 1846. From Court records in Randolph County, I have learned that their mother's name was called Betty. (She witnessed as affray which involved her son Isiah Hix.) There is also an Elizabeth HIX on the 1790 census, and I believe that to be the same person. I have also learned that an Elizabeth HIX was married to a Henry HIX who died about 1783/4, in Caswell Co. (She would of course be a widow-as the Elizabeth of the 1790 census, was.) It is entirely possible that Henry and Elizabeth could be your Nancy's parents. Need to do a little more research on this.

I see some reference to this family on the Websites, however, the dates they use could not be the same as this Elizabeth and (Henry's) They would have to have been born around 1735/45 to have had a family as early as 1762, the approximate date that their daughter Elizabeth was born.

James Tarpley is the son of James Tarpley, Jr. and Tabitha Oldham Tarpley who lived on the Plantation Road near Present day Keysville, Virginia in Charlotte County Virginia. His father was the second son of James Tarpley, SR. and Mary Oldham Tarpley who raised a large family in Brunswick County, Virginia having lived there from about 1740 to the late 1700's. James, Sr. and Mary Oldham Tarpley came to Brunswick County, Virginia from Richmond County Virginia. James, Sr. was the grandson of James and Mary Biddlecomb Tarpley who were early settlers in Richmond County Virginia. The brother of James, Jr. Tarpley (Thomas Oldham Tarpley) also lived in Caswell Co. NC and raised your James of interest after his brother James, Jr. died at an early age with many children in Charlotte County, Virginia.

James Tarpley and Nancy Hix (especially the Hix line).

Do you have Nancy's parents and siblings?

I believe James and Nancy had a daughter named Christiana, born about 1797). Christiana married Moses Oldham in 1816 in Wilson Co., TN. Christiana is my gggg-grandmother. My ggg-grandmother was Nancy Hicks Oldham.

Nancy Hicks Oldham married John M McEwen in 1838 in Madison Co., TN. Their grand-daughter (my g-grandmothe) was named Lucy Hicks McEwen.

It is possible that this is the Benjamin I'm looking for. I do not know, what became of him, or Willis. Isiah and his wife Mary, moved to Brown Co., Ill. Davis, from whom I descend, stayed here in Randolph County, but I have never found a grave site. I suppose, like many in early times, he was buried on his own land, with a rock or something to mark his grave. (Now unknown,) Are you a descendant? Did Benjamin serve in the Rev. War or war of 1812? I have noted there was a Capt. Benjamin Hix, in some of my notes, but don't know if he is related to these Hixes.

What part of SC did he settle?
