

Frank & Harold
England 18/8/72

WF-2

WHITLOCK, Frank Hooper — At the Victoria Hospital, London, on Saturday, June 15, 1968. Frank Hooper Whitlock, of 152 Henry Street, Mitchell, Ontario, formerly of 1355 Main Street West, Hamilton. Husband of Lillian Mae Seymour. Father of F. Seymour of Burlington, Harold M. of Mitchell, W. John of Hamilton, Mrs. C. J. Baker (L. Margaret) of St. Marthe, Quebec. Also surviving are four sons and 17 grandchildren. Member of Hamilton Lodge 562 A.P. & A.M. G.R.C. Member of Transportation Safety Supervisors, Canadian Transport Association and the Hamilton Trucking Council. Veteran of World War I with the C.E.F. and World War II with the R.C.E.M.E. Resting at the J. B. Marlett Funeral Home, 615 Main Street East (east of Samford) from Sunday noon. Service in Marlett Memorial Chapel on Monday at 11:30 a.m. In-terment Rockwood, Ontario. In lieu of flowers donations to the heart fund would be appreciated.

Sunday afternoon at 3 p.m.

APR 20 1973
KEITH W. TURNBULL

Cp. Keith W. Turnbull, 49, of Armstrong, Ontario, died there Friday.

The OPP officer was born in Branchton, Sept. 14, 1923. He was a veteran in World War II with the RCAF and joined the Ontario Provincial Police in 1957.

Cp. Turnbull was stationed in North Bay, Sturgeon Falls, Grand Bend, and Kirkland Lake before going to Armstrong where he was in charge of the detachment there for more than two years.

Surviving are his mother Mrs. Hilda Turnbull, Cambridge (Galt), two sisters, Mrs. Jack (Marion) Otto, Southampton and Mrs. Frederick (Helen) Wuerth, Port Elgin. His father Bertram and a brother Rae, predeceased Cpl. Turnbull in 1955 and 1972, respectively.

The deceased is resting at Coutts and Son funeral home, 96 St. Andrews St. from 2 p.m. Sunday. Funeral and committal services will be held there Monday, April 23 at 2 p.m. Interment is in Mountview Cemetery.

50

reception will be at the Corner House.

Bombardier H. Whitlock, 11-69th Field Battery, brother of the bride, will give her away. She is to wear a long gown of powder blue wool, and will carry a colonial nosegay of Briarcliff roses. The cameo she is wearing is an old family heirloom.

Miss Eileen Stanton, in a beige wool frock, and carrying Talsman roses, will be bridesmaid. Mr. Charles Lucas, London, will attend the groom, and Mr. Jack Whitlock will be the usher. Mr. W. Von Gunten will be at the organ, and Bombardier Whitlock will sing. Because, while the register is being signed.

The bride's mother will receive, wearing a long black frock of silk, with corsage bouquet of carnations. The mother of the groom will assist her, dressed in royal blue, and her corsage bouquet will be of pink roses. Going away on the honeymoon, the bride will wear a grey and turquoise dress, with black accessories, and a black broadtail coat.

Baker—Whitlock

Evergreens and poinsettia blooms adorn Delta United church to-day for the wedding this evening at 7 o'clock, of Lillian Margaret, daughter of Lieut. F. H. Whitlock, No. 1, Divisional Ammunition Corps, C.A. S.C., and Mrs. Whitlock, to Mr Charles James Baker, son of Mr and Mrs. J. H. Y. Baker. Rev. W J. Preston is officiating at the ceremony. Members of the immediate