

'All of a sudden it was just boom!' as midair crash kills 10

Associated Press

Rebekah Whitelock, 20, stands outside her house in Kearns, Utah, Thursday where landing gear from a commuter plane crashed through the roof. The plane collided with a small plane over the Salt Lake Valley, killing 10 people. "All of a sudden it was just boom!" Whitelock said. "I was four steps away from opening up the door and it hit." See story on Page 3A.

70