

Naomi Gary Whitlock dies

Funeral services for Naomi Gary Whitlock of Greenville were held Tuesday, Sept. 15, at Highland Terrace Baptist Church.

She died at a Greenville nursing home at the age of 70 Monday, Sept. 14, 1987.

Officiating at the funeral service were Dr. Bobby Renfro and Rev. Bob Layman. Burial was at Memoryland Memorial Park. Born Oct. 21, 1916, in Fannin County, she was the daughter of Sam and Grace Croft Gary. She married James H. Whitlock on Jan. 4, 1933, in Hugo, Okla. She was a former saleslady for Titches and a homemaker and a member of the Highland Terrace Baptist Church and Beta Sigma Phi.

Survivors include her husband; sons, Gary Whitlock and Charles Whitlock; daughter, Jeanne Gates; brother, J.P. Gary, all of Greenville; seven grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

Serving as pallbearers were John Strother, Joe Garner, Jimmy Whitlock, James Smith, Monty Moore and George Smith.