

NP100

PRIZES FOR THREE STUDENTS Electricity Awards

The first winners of the Ald. Medland awards for the three best electrical engineering students at the Plymouth and Devonport Technical College were announced today.

Mr. B. T. Crawford, of 4, Elm-park, South Down, Millbrook, who works in Devonport Dockyard, wins £10, and Mr. P. H. Bates, of 2, Hive-cottages, Hendra Bridge, Liskeard, an Electricity Board apprentice, at Liskeard, and Mr. J. A. Whitelock, of 1, Hawthorn-grove, Beacon Park, Plymouth, each receives £5.

The prizes were awarded by the South Western Electricity Board in recognition of Ald. H. M. Medland's personal contribution to the overall development of electricity distribution in the south-west as a part-time member of the board for eight years.

WJA
121