

CRIMEAN VETERAN.

LETTER FROM MR. H. E. KEARLEY, M.P.

The funeral of Mr. Joseph T. Pascoe, of 33, Mount-street, Devonport, who served in the Crimea and other campaigns, took place yesterday afternoon at Plymouth Cemetery. Deceased was a keen politician and had closely identified himself with the work of the Liberal party in the borough for a long number of years. The mourners were: Mrs. Pascoe (widow), Mrs. Whitlock (daughter), Mr. W. P. Whitlock (grandson), Mr. Pascoe (nephew), Mr. R. Ball (nephew), Miss Whitlock (grand-daughter), Miss L. Pearce and Mr. N. Pearce (cousins), Mr. R. Pascoe and Mr. R. Pearce (cousins), Mr. W. H. Whitlock (son-in-law), Mr. T. Stephens (brother-in-law), Mr. W. Stephens (brother-in-law), Mr. A. Stephens, Mr. T. Pearce, Mrs. T. Stephens, Mr. F. Vincent, Mr. Kent, and Mrs. Burt. The Liberal party were represented by Mr. J. Jolliffe (chairman of St. Aubyn Ward Liberal Association, of which deceased was treasurer), Mr. F. Park (chairman of the Liberal Club), Mr. C. S. Body (the Executive Committee), and Mr. F. W. Thuell (Registration Agent). The Temperance Hall, of which deceased was a director, was represented by Messrs. S. Broad, sen., Hocking, S. Broad jun., R. Evans, and F. Gill.

Beautiful floral tributes were sent by the following:—The wife, daughter, and grand children: Mrs. S. Ball (sister), London; Mr. S. Ball and family, London; Mr. R. Ball and family, London; Miss B. Ball, Edinburgh; Mr. and Mrs. Pearce, Scarborough; Mr. B. Stephens and family, Chatham; Miss J. Drake, Deal; from members of Devonport Liberal Club; from members of Devonport and Stonehouse Liberal Association; Mrs. Gomer and Mrs. Carey; and Mr. and Mrs. T. Stephens, jun.

Mr. H. E. Kearley, M.P., writing to the widow, says:—"I only returned to London last evening from Scotland, and on looking through the local papers I saw the sad news of the death of our staunch old friend Pascoe. My wife and I are greatly grieved. We had the highest admiration for him and his enthusiasm for the cause. Kindly accept our condolence in your sad bereavement."

1726

WATTS—(at 10.40 on 10th, at 10, Avenue, to Mr. and Mrs. H. Watts (née Adams), a daughter.

DEATHS.

CLAVE—On September 13th, at a Nursing Home, London, S.W., Charles Courtenay, the devoted husband of Daisy, and darling daddy of Rosy, late torpedo gunner (R.N.), died after long suffering, patiently borne. Funeral on Saturday, 9.30, at St. Augustine's Church, Two o'clock; thence to Plymouth Old Cemetery. D.B.

HODGES—September 13th, at a Nursing Home, Salmsbury, Frank, dearly-loved son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hodges, Windmere, Carkeel, and loving brother of Gerlie. Funeral leaving house 3.30, Saturday, for St. Stephens.

MILES—September 14th, William Alfred, beloved son of Emily Miles, aged 21 years. Funeral leaving 5, Elliot-street, Weston Mill Estate, at 2.55 for St. Philip's Church, Three p.m.

PEARCE—On September 14th, at 53, King's Garden, George Sheep (late R.N.), aged 75 years, beloved husband of Susanna, and loving father of Winnifred, George, Percy, and Fernleigh. Funeral Sunday, leaving the house 8.30 a.m. R.I.P.

PRIDHAM—September 14th, at 19, Hyde Park-road, Margate, Caroline, wife of the late William Pridham, R.N., loving mother of Will, George, and Al, aged 81. Funeral Sunday morning, at the Old Plymouth Cemetery. No flowers, by request.

SANSON—September 15th, 4, Wyndham-lane.—In loving memory of Mabel Sanson, aged 33, who peacefully passed away after a long illness. Ever remembered by mother, father, sisters, and brothers-in-law.

WHITLOCK—At 33, Mount-street, Elizabeth Ann, aged 69, the beloved wife of the late William Henry. Sadly missed by her sorrowing children. Reunited after three weeks.

IN MEMORIAM.

CLAVE—In treasured memory of our darling Rosie, died September 16th, 1925, aged 23 dear sister of Eric and Francis. Sadly missed by all at home & abroad.

MILES—In treasured remembrance of our darling Edna, who passed away September 16th, 1925, dear little daughter of W. J. F. and A. E. Miles, and loving sister of Will—From her sorrowing daddy, mummy and brother. She still lives.

RYDER—In loving remembrance of our dear Mother (Mary), who died 16th September, 1925. Until the Resurrection morn.

THANKS.

HILLBRANDT—Mr. J. H. Hillbrandt and family.

NP 131

MONA.

(Minimum)

If these small advertisements advance an additional per insertion will be

Original Testimonials about Advertisers can have reply number, charge 6d. and Office, 9, Frankfort-street, Office—No. 10, Fore-street, I plain, Muntley; 126, High Fleet-street, Torquay; Truro.

Whilst great pains are taken printing of Advertisements to be answerable for inaccuracies sequences arising therefrom, guarantee the insertion of they also reserve the right tion of any advertisement.

No advertisements can be tion in the classified cols Herald" unless received previous day.

The Offices at 9, FRANKFORT-STREET remain OPEN for the receipt of

MONDAYS to FRIDAYS SATURDAYS SUNDAYS

DANCING, W

SPECIAL Notice.—Arcadia Lane and Sea-NIGHTLY, 10. MATINEE weekdays, 3-6.30, 6d. M. Trot Competition. W. Lucky Number Night. away. Orchestra under

WE Specialize in TIES, Ballroom Wholesale and retail 40, Frankfort-street. BRITANNIA H B Road, FRIDAY

WFR-13

Thursday, 1925

DOVERCOURT SHIP'S STEWARD'S DEATH

Steering aboard the Parkston Coasting steamer for 32 years, Mr. Ernest Whitlock, of 17, Nelson-road, Devonport, died on Wednesday last week, aged 58. At the funeral at 10.30, at Upper Dovercourt Cemetery, on Monday, the mourners included representatives of the shipping services and fellow stewards. The service was conducted by the vicar of Dovercourt, the Rev. A. H. Johnson.

Immediate mourners were: Mrs. M. Whitlock, widow; Miss Daphne Whitlock, Miss Rosamund Whitlock, Miss Dorothy Whitlock, Miss D. Finch niece; Mr. and Mrs. A. Silburn, brother-in-law and sister-in-law; Mr. and Mrs. Eliason and Mr. A. E. Ridgway.

Also present at the graveside were: Mr. J. E. Lusk, vice purser, representing the manager of Shipping Services; Capt. C. S. Baxter, master of the s.s. Amsterdam; Mr. A. G. Sherman, purser, s.s. Amsterdam; and the following stewards from the same vessel: Messrs. J. Kettle, W. Carr, A. Mackenzie and V. Whitehead.

Wreaths were sent by: Mrs. Daphne and Rosamund; Miss. Son and Billie; Dorothy and Mollie (Plymouth); Vera and family (Plymouth); Norman, Barbara and family (Plymouth); Kath (Barkhill); Mr. and Mrs. White and Ursula (Aylesbury); Mr. Goby and Daisy (Great Oakley); Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Farrow; Mr. and Mrs. Fenning; Arthur; Alice, Alf and Gerlie (Gray); Mr. and Mrs. Parrett; Friends and neighbours of Nelson-road; Mr. and Mrs. Hunter and daughters; Cherry and Charles (Finsley); Lil and John (Plymouth); Purser and catering dept., s.s. Amsterdam; Mrs. Kettle and Jack; the Francis family; Mrs. G. Marshall; Mr. and Mrs. R. Smith; Mrs. West (Chelmsford); Officers and crew s.s. Victoria; Miss. B. Ivy and Janet; Cousins Eschen; Arthur, Margaret, George and children. Mr. and Mrs. C. Bennett sent a donation to the Cancer Research Fund.

Funeral arrangements were carried out by A. Smith and Sons Ltd., under the personal supervision of Mr. W. A. F. Smith, M.B.E.S.

FUNERAL OF A DEVONPORT CRIMEAN VETERAN.

The funeral of Mr. Joseph T. Pascoe, of 33, Mount-street, Devonport, who served in the Crimea and other campaigns, took place this afternoon at Plymouth Cemetery. Deceased was a keen politician and had closely identified himself with the work of the Liberal party in the borough for a long number of years. The mourners were: Mrs. Pascoe (widow), Mrs. Whitlock (daughter), Miss Whitlock (grand-daughter), Miss L. Pearce, and Mr. N. Pearce (cousins), Mr. R. Pascoe, and Mr. R. Pearce (cousins), Mr. W. H. Whitlock (son-in-law), Mr. T. Stephens (brother-in-law), Mr. W. Stephens (brother-in-law), Mr. A. Stephens, Mr. T. Pearce, Mrs. T. Stephens, Mr. F. Vincent, Mr. Kent, Mrs. Burt. The Liberal party were represented by Mr. J. Jolliffe (chairman of St. Aubyn Ward Liberal Association, of which deceased was treasurer), Mr. F. Park (chairman of the Liberal Club), Mr. C. S. Body (the Executive Committee), and Mr. F. W. Thuell (Registration Agent). The Temperance Hall, of which deceased was a director, was represented by Messrs. S. Broad, senior, Hocking, S. Broad, jun., R. Evans, and F. Gill. There were many beautiful floral tributes.

4 ST.