

Family

Obituaries

KENNETH O. LEWIS

Kenneth Oscar Lewis, 78, of Keizer, died April 14.

He was born Oct. 7, 1912, in West Salem's Eola community, and except for the time he served in the Navy during World War II, he has been a lifelong resident of the Salem-Keizer area.

He married Marjorie R. Zwicker on June 29, 1935, in Salem.

For 45 years, until he retired, he was a supervisor for Boise Cascade. He was a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and he enjoyed fishing, hunting and gardening.

Besides his wife, he is survived by his sister, Edna Kittson of Foster.

At his request, there will be no formal ceremony and burial will be private.

Contributions may be made to the American Cancer Society, Marion County Unit, 241 Commercial St. N.E., Salem 97301.

Keizer Chapel Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

JAMES W. PHILLIPS

James William Phillips, 82, died Saturday in Salem.

He was born Dec. 1, 1908, in Decatur, Ala. and he was a long-time resident of Salem. He married Doris J. Bechtold on May 29, 1954, in Stevenson, Wash. He retired in 1973 as a salesman for petroleum products.

Besides his wife, of Salem, he is survived by a daughter, Lynette Phillips of Kansas; stepdaughters, Suzanne Stephen of Salem and Pamela Marshall of New Jersey; a stepson, Edgar Bowman of Salem; a brother, Giles Phillips of Plankey, Tenn.; a sister, Cora Lee Carroll of Decatur, Ala.; nine grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

At his request, there will be no formal service. Private family burial

KATHERINE Z. SANDERSON

Katherine Z. Sanderson, 64, died April 9 in Keizer.

She was born Jan. 6, 1927, in Blossom, Texas. She married Howard W. Sanderson on Sept. 30, 1945, in Wichita Falls, Texas. He died Jan. 14, 1981.

She moved to Portland from Oklahoma in 1946, and in 1961 she moved to Brooks. She settled in Keizer in 1979. She was a member of Halbert Baptist Church and enjoyed reading.

She is survived by her daughters, Paula Sanderson of Keizer and Carol Nelson of Delaware, Ohio; brothers, R.L. Landers of Mineral Wells, Texas, and Roger Landers of Keizer; sisters, Floma Harguess and Evelyn Meeks, both of Salem, Barbara Curths of Albany, Orlean Osborn of Altus, Okla., and Janelle Sarrett of Jackson, Miss., and three grandchildren.

A funeral service was held last Friday at Howell-Edwards-Doerksen Chapel of the Gardens. Burial was in City View Cemetery.

Contributions may be made to the Kidney Association of Oregon or the Mid-Willamette Valley Hospice.

LAMBERT J. KRAGER

Lambert J. "Bert" Krager, 68, of Keizer, died April 10 in Salem.

He was born June 28, 1922, in Dallas and lived in Willamina for 19 years. He served in the army during World War II, and he married Dorothy S. Scharf Oct. 25, 1946, in Salem.

He owned a Standard and Texaco service station in Grand Ronde and Valley Junction. He then moved to Lincoln City, where he was a partner with Morgan's Garage until he retired. He moved to Keizer a year

Katherine was the daughter of Frances Whitlock Landers.