What little information I have on the Whitlocks came from History of Middle Tennessee Baptists, U. S. Census data, and from family members whom I write to but have never met.

My husband's great grandfather was John Whitlock, a Baptist minister who was born in Virginia Jan. 25, 1797. Thus far I have been unable to find where in Virginia I believe he had brothers, James, John, and Thomas.

He married first Nancy Best and second Minerva C. Brown who was my husband's great grandmother.

John Whitlock was the father of twenty-three children of whom my husband's grandmother America Ludella Whitlock Herndon was the youngest. I guess it is not surprising that my husband's mother, Minerva ~~Whitlock~~ <sup>Whitlock</sup> <sup>(Allman)</sup> knew very few of her aunts and uncles as by the time she was five, her grandmother (Whitlock) and most of her aunts and uncles moved to Texas. Of the 23 children, I have only found the names I listed on this paper.

One of the Whitlock relatives with whom I correspond told me that five brothers (Whitlock) came to this country - three settled in Virginia and two in New York. The Virginia brothers were Thomas, Elvin, and Charles. I think it likely that Thomas was John Whitlock's father. I don't know where she got her information so I can't substantiate the information in this paragraph.
