Stanley M. Whitlock is the son of William Whitlock, a soldier who was shot in the army, and the grandson of Thomas Whitlock, who settled in Isehua from Ithaca, N. Y., about 1830. William Whitlock married Eliza, daughter of Dr. James Trowbridge; children: Euzetta (Mrs. Ernest Hollister), Stanley M., Clara (Mrs. Lester Linderman), and Henry. Stanley Whitlock was born in 1853, was reared on a farm, married Dora Linderman in 1877, and came to Humphrey and settled on his present farm of eighty-four acres in 1879. Children: Ray, Clair, and Bessie. Mr. Whitlock is active in town affairs and is now filling the office of assessor.

Charles E. Whitney is the son of Joseph M. Whitney, of Penn Yan, N. Y., who came to Sardinia, N. Y., and in 1843 married Arabela H. Warner, of Ashford. After living in East Otto and Ashford Hollow they settled in Great Valley in 1853, where Mrs. Whitney died in 1865. She was born in Keene, N. H., a daughter of Jerry and Phebe (Howe) Warner, of Scotch descent. Their children were Charles E., Eliza F., Warner J., Sarah E., Julia A., Spencer L., Fred M., Frank B., and George. Charles E. was born in 1845, in Sardinia, grew up on the farm with the usual common school advantages, and at the age of seventeen enlisted in Co. I, 154th N. Y. Vols., and joined the Army of the Potomac, fighting under McClellan, Burnside, Hooker, and Meade. In the battle of Chancellorsville he was severely wounded in his left thigh, after which he was captured and remained three days on the field, constantly under fire, without food or medical attention. After two weeks' imprisonment and eight months in the hospital he returned to his regiment and at Rocky Face Ridge, Ga., in 1864, was again captured and confined in Andersonville and other rebel prisons seven months, weighing but eighty five pounds when he came out. He did no more active duty, is still lame in his shattered thigh, and receives a small pension. He married, in 1871, Sarah E., daughter of William C. Haggerty, of Humphrey. They settled in Kansas, where he was postmaster and justice of the peace ten years and also filled other town offices. Poor health brought them back in 1883 to this town, where his father had settled in 1866, and where he died in 1880. Children: Clara A. (Mrs. Frank H. Maher), Julia E., Fred H. (died in Kansas), Marian E., and Fannie A. Mr. Whitney has always been a Republican and is now justice of the peace.

Barber Wilber was born in Fabius, N. Y., in 1811, whither his father, Freeman Wilber, removed at an early day from Rhode Island. Freeman was a soldier in the Revolutionary war. He married Mercy Kinyon; their sons were Kinyon, Freeman, Alanson, Robert, Amasa, Nathan, and Barber, all of whom came to Humphrey about 1830 and settled on the Five Mile tract,
