BY CORINNE LOWE.

NEW YORK.—[Special Correspondence.]—Apparently those French women would rather wear gooseflesh than sleeves. The above model from a Paris designer shows how frugal they really are about this detail. Whether American women are going to expose their elbows to the chill nor'easter is a problem that must be decided. They never would do it before, but in the presence of all these short sleeved gowns that are coming over to us from Paris—well, perhaps we'll all soon be buying gloves by the yard and looking about for another safe place to check our laughs. Here is a combination of satin and tricot, both in the fashionable shade of marron glacé. The embroidery is gold thread.

Admits Women of Chicago Are World's Most Attractive

Avaunt internationalism in dress, away with the fetish of Paris models, and it has the hobble!

"American fashions for American women" will be the slogan of Chicago suffragists, according to Mrs. Elizabeth Whitlock, 51 Bellevue place, the propagandist for the cause, who says that Chicago women are the most attractive women in the world, and American women the most immaculate.

The simon pure American designs were presented by Mrs. Whitlock at the style revue in the Stevens building under the auspices of the Political Equality league. The fashion show, which closed Saturday, was conducted

That the full amount of $3,000,000 was raised yesterday by the Lutherans of the Missouri synod for the benefit of retired ministers and preachers in church schools was expressed by the Rev. W. C. Kohn, chairman of the committee in charge of the campaign.

"We have received many reports gifts of $5,000 each. One church in and they all indicate the movement will be successful," said Dr. Kohn.

"We have heard of three individual

Co. M., 131st Inf., Reception.

Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock the auxiliary of Company M, One Hundred and Thirty-first Infantry, will hold a reception in the assembly hall of the Insurance Exchange building, at which all the members of that company who have returned and who can leave the hospitals will be present.

by young women, members of the league, under the direction of Miss Margaret B. Dobyne.

"We are sorry to see the tight skirt," said Mrs. Whitlock today. "We can't use what the French woman uses, for the types are so different. The French woman has a narrower waist, and the hips of the French and American women are not the same. We are going to refuse to accept the extremely tight skirt."
